GIRL SCOUTS ENTERTAIN

The benefit dessert card party given by the Girl Scouts at the Parish hall on Friday evening was a delightful affair.

Dessert tables were decorated with sprigs and cones of fir with cut flowers used about the hall.

The evening program and entertainment was begun by a short flag drill by the girl scouts directed by their leader, Mrs. Clarence Brewster followed by group singing of the Star Spangled Banner. Pianist for this was Jean Taylor.

At the close of the program the girls assisted in the serving of dessert and coffee. All the prizes given were made by the scouts under the direction of Mrs. Gilbert Allesbrook.

Prizes for the evening were awarded to Glea Billings who won the door prize, to Mrs. J. J. Sarazin, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Rinehart and Leo Hollenburg as winners at bridge and to Mrs. G. W. Humphreys, Miss Margaret Wilson, William De Groot, and Hugh Rowe winners at pinocle. Patronesses for the affair were Mrs. Keith Bailey, Mrs. C. E. Taylor, Mrs. William E. Schireman, Mrs. K. E. Kerby, Mrs. Leonard Church, Mrs. Grant Lewis and Mrs. Gilbert Allesbrook. Assisting Mrs. Brewster and the Scouts were the assistant leaders Miss Harriett Sarazin and Miss Vera Jensen.

MR. AND MRS. CLUB

The Mr. and Mrs. Club was entertained on Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Burnall Brown and all members were present. Following dinner, contract was played at which Mr. Larson and Mr. Arthur H. Boydell were winners. Later several rubbers were played between the ladies and the men and at this the ladies were high score holders.

CAROL WHITAKER CELEBRATES

In honor of the fifth birthday anniversary of her daughter Carol, Mrs. Ronald Whitaker invited twelve of Carol's friends and six of their mothers to a lawn party on Saturday afternoon.

A fish pond where the youngsters hooked prizes was the chief source of amusement for the afternoon. Two lighted birthday cakes and a bowl of pansies decorated the luncheon table set on the lawn.
