ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY

At a party given on Friday evening at the home of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Sarazin the approaching wedding of Miss Harriett and Miss Isabelle Sarazin were announced to a group of sixteen friends.

The spacious rooms of the Sarazin home were attractively decorated in cut flowers of pastel shades and on the tables at each guest place a tiny card hidden under a flower corsage announced the engagement of the two popular Nyssa girls.

Miss Harriett Sarazin will become the bride of Clare Gray Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Peterson of Scobey, Montana, in September while Miss Isabelle Sarazin will wed Warren R. Larsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Larsen, Twin Falls, Idaho in November. The exact dates for the weddings have not been set.

These weddings are of special interest to older residents of Nyssa as Dr. and Mrs. Sarazin were married here and the two girls received their grammar and high school education here. Miss Harriett is a graduate of the State University and Miss Isabelle attended Corvallis.

Bridge and pinocle were played following dessert at which Miss Ottilia Hoffstetter, Ontario, Mrs. Robert Lee and Mrs. Kenneth Cochran made high scores.

At the regular meeting of the Rebekahs held on Thursday night installation of new officers was held. These included Noble Grand, Mrs. Harriett Harris; vice noble grand, Mrs. Marguerite Wilson; Chaplain, Mrs. Fannie Pelton; Past noble grand, Mrs. Bette Forbes; past vice noble grand, Mrs. Mable Poage; R. S. N. G., Phoebe Hunter; L. S. N. G., Beulah Gann; R. S. V. G., Severia Bea; L. S. N. G., Ruby Greer; Warden, Angie Cook; Conductress, Maud McGinnis; Outside Guard, Edna May Burn; Secretary, Sophia Root; Treasurer, Mable Poage.

Following installations a supper was enjoyed.

CIVIC CLUB

Members and friends of the Nyssa Civic Club enjoyed their annual outdoor meeting on the lawn of Mrs. A. R. Sherwood's home on Wednesday afternoon.

At the business meeting presided over by club president, Mrs. Gleda Billings, the matter of a concession and float in the Pioneer parade was discussed.

On the program, Mrs. Clarence Brewster discussed modern methods of teaching the deaf and illustrated her talk with several interesting illustrations. Mrs. Billings gave a report of the pre-school clinic and Le-dora Booth told of her trip to the 4-H Summer School at Corvallis.

Tea was poured by Mrs. George J. Mitchell, Mrs. William E. Schreiman and Mrs. Gilbert Alsebrook.

ROUND ROBIN PARTIES

This week will end the series of Round Robin parties sponsored by the Nyssa Civic Club. Besides providing for many afternoons of pleasant entertainment with a minimum of labor and responsibility during the hot summer weather the committee reports that the monetary returns have been most satisfactory.

Parties this past week were given by Mrs. Bert B. Lienkaemper, Mrs. Gilbert Alsebrook, Mrs. Robert Lee, Mrs. Ralph Beutler, Mrs. Ed. Frost, Mrs. John E. Stafford and Mrs. A. V. Cook.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Janice Frost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Frost celebrated her tenth birthday anniversary on Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Frost invited sixteen of Janice's friends to a garden party. A candle lighted birthday cake and refreshments were served in the late afternoon.

ANNUAL DINNER
