About 30 friends of Mrs. Vestal Wallace, the former Mona Gee, attended a miscellaneous shower given in her honor, at the home of Mrs. Howard Jones, Friday evening. After the card catalogue of tried recipes was completed, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace opened the packages containing their gifts. Many lovely things were given Mrs. Wallace. China, glass, towels and pillowcases. Several ladies clubbed together and bought her a very nice electric iron. Miss Mona Crow and Miss Ida Norland assisted Mrs. Jones with the preparation and serving of dainty refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace are living in Ontario where he is trucking for the local creamery and she is keeping books at the Boyer Dept. store.

Miss Myrtle Walmsley spoke to an interested group at the morning service of the Methodist church. Miss Walmsley who is well acquainted in the community spoke of the work done in the mission at Truchas, New Mexico, of which she is head. In this place 40 miles from Sante Fe and 8,000 feet above sea level nestled in small valleys and basins lives a Spanish American people. And there, where improvements along all lines of work have never entered, where tools and furnishings are most primitive, Miss Walmsley carries on a school and a church work. Acting as nurse, doctor, teacher, manager in fact about everything.
