Cow Hollow

By The Happy Farmer

Our grange is in the spot-light in Cow Hollow again Two weeks ago we organized for a campaign for new members. Every member is actively concerned. This last week we acted upon the applications for four new members and we expect several more by our next meeting.

This last meeting the Oregon Trail Grange brought up seventeen of their members and put on the amusement hour for us. We had so much business that we like to do never get to our amusement hour.

We had a lengthy discussion on the triple A's urgent appeal for to raise lagume seed for to be sent to the south's cotton fields for their soil building program. Some of our Cow Hollow farmers will attempt to raise Australian peas. And some vetch for seed. Raising these lagumes for seed will not only help the government, for which they will pay us well, but it will put large amounts of nitrogen in our soil, for which the soil its-self will also pay us well.

We also organized "The Chalk Butte Hunting Reserve." All or a part of nine separate sections of land will be posted as a private hunting reserve. Special permits at the tune of five dollars apiece will be sold for a right to hunt on this hunting reserve. All the revenue there off will go to the paying off the debt and much needed completing of the Community Hall.

If there is any place in America that can produce more game birds per acre than this reserve they certainly will have to step on it, for we certainly have thousands of pheasants and partridge. There are still more partridge than pheasants. The sportsman that comes in from outside of Malheur County for to hunt and gets in a few days late after the other birds have been well scared out can go home with some tall stories about the birds he bagged on our hunting reserve and have the birds to show for it.

Hay selling has been quite active in this community the past week. The last of this week and for some time to come we expect to have two choppers preparing this hay for to be moved out.

Jim Trummel thrashed her white Dutch clover Sunday and Monday and was very well pleased with the results.

We expect to have a thrashing machine in the Hollow next week clearing up the rest of the thrashing that is to be done. There will be some grain and seed for Dale Limbough, some grain for Chuck Share, some grain for Roy Manley, some seed for Clarence Niccum, some grain and seed for Elza Niccum, some seed for Russel Howell and some grain and seed for Dude Parker. So between two hay choppers and the thrashing machine and possibly a third cutting of haying job for Claud Britton most of us can call our little rest 'over'. Oh yes and Roy Manley expected to start pulling his onions Wednesday morning.

Betty Niccum and her mother returned Sunday from another trip to the Shriners Hospital at Portland. he hospital gave her different shoes and hanged her braces some. The authorities there are quite proud of the rate she is improving and expect that at the present rate of improvement, in another six months she will be past the crisis. The Hospital Superintendent (Miss Humphry) and her local Doctor (Dr. Kerby) both recommend that she don't start to school until she has passed out of this danger zone.
