SOCIETY

MARRIAGE

BRIDE

One of the loveliest weddings to be performed in Nyssa in a long time was that of Miss Marjorie Burdick, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Burdick and Mr. Clarence Gray Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Peterson of Boring, Oregon, at high noon on Wednesday in the flower filled St. Paul's Episcopal church.

On the altar of her father, who gave the bride in marriage, Miss Burdick came down the aisle and Gibson stepped aside to meet the bride and the best man, the father, at the altar. When before a church crowded with family friends and relatives the young couple pledged their love with the solemnizing ceremony of the Episcopal church, read by the Reverend E. Stanley Moore, and afterwards held to receive the blessing.

Proceeding the ceremony while Mr. Gordon Failing and Mrs. Herbert Foster played several selections on piano and violin and Miss June Marie Wilson sang "At Dawning."

The altar candles were lighted by David Burdick.

Miss Isabelle Burdick was her sister's Maid of Honor and her bridesmaids were Miss Harry Bowden and Miss Margaret Burdick.

Ushers were Edward Boyell and Herbert Burdick.

The bride made a lovely picture in her white silk marriage gown and the wedding party consisted of the bride and groom, the best man, the father, the mother, the bridesmaids, the maid of honor, the flower girls and the ring bearer.

Miss Isabelle Burdick's gown was of powder blue silk jersey and with it she wore a post-pom cap of pink and white satin, velvet ribbon and carried a bouquet of the same flowers.

The bridesmaids' gowns were identical picture dresses of the emerald green and white material and carried flower bouquets of white roses and white asters.

Mrs. Burdick wore a rose colored silk suit with a corsage of pink and white rose buds. Mrs. Peterson, mother of the bride-groom, an RAF blue afternoon gown and corsage of golden lilies.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Burdick, presented the guests.

At the table where the bride's case formed the centerpiece Miss Eva Boyell, Mrs. C. C. Kouchner, and Mrs. R. A. Tacker presided.

Others assisting with the serving were Mrs. A. C. Norton, Mrs. Kenneth Cochran, the Misses Virginia Miller, June Marie Wilson, Helen Ogden, Phyllis Poole, Louise Tannen, and Helen Sallee.

The artistic flower arrangements both at the church and at the home were under the care of Mrs. Beulah Barrett, Mrs. A. C. Sallee, Mrs. Lee Kirkham and Mrs. H. J. Larsen.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Peterson left on a wedding trip. Mrs. Peterson chose for her going away costume a midnight blue serge suit with a grosgrain trim with which she wore blue accessories and carried a light colored purse. Her hat was of matching grosgrain.

Both the bride and the bride-groom are graduates of the University of Oregon and took an active and prominent part in student activities.

Mr. Peterson is affiliated with Alpha Omicron Pi and is a member of National Society of Technicians and also of Phi-Kappa Theta. Since her graduation she has been assisting at the Burdick Clinic in Nyssa.

Mr. Peterson is also a graduate of the Nyssa high and grade schools and a member of a family long associated with the growth and development of Nyssa for the past 25 years. She is a grand daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Susan Boyell.

Mr. Peterson is a member of the Kappa Sigma and Phi Eta Kappa and is now studying medicine at the Oregon Medical school.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson will be at home in Portland after October 1st.

TO WED ON SUNDAY

Another wedding of interest to people in this community will take place on Sunday when Miss Ann Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Johnson of the Owyhee becomes the bride of Raymond Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Graham of Nyssa.
