BAKER MAN GIVES PRAISE TO CLUBS ON TAX ATTITUDE

Bert L. Harvey of Baker, owner of the Harvey Poster Advertising company which operates in this territory, has congratulated the Nyssa chamber of commerce and Lions club on its attitude toward tax reduction. The chamber and Lions clubs are sponsoring a series of advertisements appearing in the Gate City Journal.

Mr. Harvey's letter said in part: "Your chamber of commerce and Lions club deserve a lot of credit for the idea in their 'cut local taxes to the bone' and also for putting this idea into execution. I have just noted this in your issue of April 9 and it is exactly along my line of thinking. I cannot refrain from giving voice to this outburst."

NEWELL HEIGHTS

Invitations have been extended to the faculty of the high school and elementary school and their families to be honor guests at a basket dinner at the high school following the Sunday school hour and a short business meeting. There will be no preaching service due to the evening services honoring the high school seniors with Dr. John Anderson as guest speaker.

The church and Sunday school will take this means Sunday of showing their appreciation of the cooperation and help these honor guests have given in the work here. Visitors will be especially welcome. They are to provide a basket lunch and service for each. Ellen Judd and Harold and Dud Kurts motored to Nampa Saturday for the final rehearsal of the district band and the taking of pictures of the band.

Members of the high school band enjoyed a party Tuesday night at the high school following a special band rehearsal. Saturday the young musicians will motor to Nampa to compete in the musical festival. Adrian will be the first on the program—playing at 7:30, local time. Sometime during the day all bands will march. In the evening the all district band and orchestra will be featured. People's class of the Adrian community church served a picnic dinner Sunday honoring Mrs. de Lessinas, their teacher and her family. Dr. Anderson of Caldwell was also a guest. Thirty one enjoyed the dinner served cafeteria style at the M. L. Kurtz home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fischer and son Robert, and daughter, Mrs. Raymond Witty, and her son, Merlin, of Newell Heights and the Woodrow Fischer family of Nyssa were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Deffen.

The R. R. Overstreet family of bough and family. Boise visited Sunday at the Overstreet and Judd homes.

Last Weeks

Irrigation water was turned into the local ditch Monday night with all farmers hurrying to draw all they could to irrigate their beets and revice new seedlings of alfalfa. Crops look drier than they have for a good many years at the beginning of the irrigation season.

Several farmers turned out Sunday and Monday to repair a culvert and grade up the road in the Harris draw. During the irrigating season this culvert made the road impassible.

Bill Kurtz took a load of young folks to the Ontario airport Sunday afternoon, giving two of them, Harold Kurtz and Idamary Prouty their first airplane ride.

Mesdames Jess Sugg, Carl and Stanley Hill, Wallace and M. L. Kurtz attended the Mary and Martha meeting at Mrs. R. Holton's home Thursday afternoon.

Wayne Piercy is recuperating at home following an appendix operation. Carl is stationed at the marine quarters at San Diego, but expects to be transferred soon.

The troop of younger Girl Scouts met with Caroline Scheimer Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Patch and Mrs. McPartland were in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kurtz were dinner guests Monday evening at the D. W. Patch home in Adrian.
