High Prices Are Paid For Stock

Rodney Chase, Springfield, received $506 for a 920-pound hereford steer; David Oliver, Corvallis, pocketed $248 for a 69-pound south-down fat lamb; and Loren Fisher, Albany, received $96.25 for a 265-pound Chester White fat hog to take top prices in their respective divisions in the state fair 4-H club livestock auction at Salem September 11.

All three animals were grand champions. The lamb brought $3.60 a pound—the highest price every paid for a fat lamb at auction in Oregon—with the Salem manager of Sears the buyer. The top beef went at 55 cents a pound, with Safeway the buyer; and the hog at 25 cents, to Sears.

The 65 hogs sold for a total of $2,400.39; eight baby beeves for $1,896.34; and 24 sheep for $580.17. All stock was from western Oregon counties.

About 30 counties were represented in the foods, clothing, forestry, room improvement, canning, cereals, vegetables and other project exhibits which were mailed in, judged at the three-day fair, then returned to the clubbers.

In spite of wartime conditions, the fair was highly successful; exhibits both livestock and other projects, were of excellent quality through fewer in number than in peacetime. Spectators were not encouraged, the event being staged as only remnant of the state fair and primarily to keep alive competitive interest among club youths during war days. Only clubbers on the grounds the three days were owners of fat livestock, these youths participating in judging and showmanship contests as well as showing their entries for placing in the regular classes.

Oregon Trail

The Merry Matrons club met at the home of Margaret Douglas Wednesday afternoon with Agnes Knowles assisting. The afternoon was spent quilting. Eight members and one guest, Mrs. Douglas, answered roll call by school day happenings. Gladys Davis won the prize in a guessing game. The club will meet September 23 at the home of Viola Adams with Gladys Davis as co-hostess. Roll call will be answered by something each person has wondered about. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The annual teachers reception will be held Friday evening. The Oregon Trail P.T.A. will hold its regular business meeting at that time. A special program will be presented. All patrons are invited to attend.

A picnic dinner was enjoyed at the Ewen Chard home Sunday. Those from this community attending included Mr. and Mrs. Marion Chard and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Smith and family. John Byers, who has been visiting for several months at the home of his son, P. S. Byers, left Wednesday morning for his home in Birmingham, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Torvald Olson and Ben Ashley made a business trip to Nampa and Ontario Monday. F. S. Byers made a business trip to Ontario Tuesday morning.

IS THERE A BOMB

IN YOUR BACKYARD?

IS THERE A MACHINE GUN IN YOUR WASTE PILE?—A TANK IN YOUR ATTIC?—AN AIRPLANE PART IN YOUR GARAGE?

On The Home Front

IT'S EVERYONE'S JOB TO LICK THE SHORTAGE IN SCRAP METAL

America's War Industries NEED YOUR Scrap Metal

- Old Radiators
- Old Bicycles
- Iron Beds
- Lengths of Pipe
- Stove Parts
- Junk Tractors
- Railings
- Tire Chains
- Steel Rims
- Auto Motors
- Broken Plows
- Wrecked Machines
- Cast Iron Fence
- Old Tools
- And Irons
- Valves & Faucets

Anything containing iron, steel, brass, copper, or aluminum is urgently needed to feed the nation's war industries. The Malheur County Salvage campaign has established a cash market for this scrap and will buy any quantity brought in.

Gather up all your waste today—RIGHT NOW—and bring it to the Salvage Receiving Station in Nyssa. We'll send it to the Japs and Germans—in the form of shells, bullets, tanks, planes, ships and shells. It's your patriotic duty to act promptly.

This war is a war of men, munitions and MACHINES—machines which call for more and still more metal. To meet this great need for metal, Uncle Sam is calling on YOU to salvage every pound of scrap metal around your home. In your backyard may be enough scrap metal for several bombs, a machine gun or a vital airplane part.

Old rubber tires, too, are needed. And brass, copper, aluminum and rags. Salvage all of this for Uncle Sam. Root it out of your waste pile—ramsack your attic, clear out your closets and search out your store rooms. EVERY POUND IS A SLAP AT THE JAPS AND A SWAT AT THE SWASTIKA.

When you have collected everybit of scrap material you can find, take it to the Salvage Receiving station at the Sessler wrecking yard on west Main street. Do it today—the need is urgent.
