MISS MARY RUST AND ELROY BRADY MARRIED

Parsons, Kas. (Special) A recent marriage of local interest was that of Miss Mary Amanda Rust, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Rust to Elroy Baird Brady, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Brady, all of Nyssa, Oregon.

The couple were married at Caldwell, Idaho, September 4, and started the following morning by auto on a wedding trip, which included a brief visit to relatives here at Parsons.

Mr. Brady is well known in Parsons, where he visited frequently. He is the son of the former Elsie Baird, who was well known in Labette county and southeast Kansas 25 years ago as a teacher, 4-H club leader and home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Clyde Miller, an aunt, and Mr. Miller entertained in their home on Route 3 in honor of the newlyweds at a family dinner Thursday. The other guests were Misses Mary M., Kathryn and Florence Baird and Robert Baird, all of the Timber Hill community. Mr. and Mrs. Brady left for San Francisco, where Mr. Brady is employed as a machinist by the Kaiser Shipbuilding firm, Enroute, short stops will include Wellington, Kansas, where Mr. Brady was reared, Wichita, Rocky Ford, Colorado and Lake Tahoe, California.

PROGRAM PRESENTED AT WESLEYAN GUILD MEETING
