By T. Carol Bybee "God will award those who diligently seek after Him." STAKE NEW YEAR'S BALL HUGE SUCCESS

The large recreation hall at stake house in Weiser was filled to capacity last Thursday evening when people from nine cities, attended the annual New Year's ball. The hall was artistically decorated with large red bows on each wall, with a tassel of silver bells hanging from each bow. Confetti and serpentine were given to each dancer. A picturesque "floor show" entitled "Lancer" was staged during intermission. To see the old year out and the new year in, the entire crowd entered into a grand march led by Mr. and Mrs. Grant Weber of Weiser. It was a colorful sight to see all the people march, many of the young folk with confetti in their hair and clinging about their apparel. At the end of the march they sang "Old Lang Syne". Many people from Nyssa attended the ball.

EDITOR NYSSA GATE CITY JOURNAL Dear Sir: Will you please print the following word received from Mrs. Selma Poulson, well known Nyssa woman, who is at present in Ogden under a doctor's care.

I have been receiving the Nyssa Gate City Journal each week in Ogden, and I certainly enjoy hearing about my many friends in Nyssa. I especially enjoy the LDS News column and the poet's corner. I wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who have sent me cards and letters of encouragement in my time of trial. They are too numerous to answer individually. Thank each one for their kind remembrances through the column in the Journal. Thank the Relief society sisters, all who signed their names to the lovely letter sent me.

I am still taking treatments preparatory to an operation. With my leg being in a cast for three months, it was so stiff and now action must take place before an operation can be performed. I think there is quite a little improvement as the soreness is leaving. Give my love and best wishes to all inquiring friends. A happy new year to all.

Sincerely yours, Mrs. Selma Poulson, 509 26th Street Ogden, Utah.
