NOTICE TO IRRIGATORS
The County Court of Malheur County, Oregon requests all persons irrigating land adjoining county roads or highways to handle the irrigation water in a careful and proper manner so as to prevent the same from flowing or seeping upon or across said roads and highways in such a manner as to injure the roads or to interfere with public use thereof.

The Court is desirous of keeping the roads in the best condition possible, but through carelessness or negligence some persons have permitted this condition to exist which is requiring unnecessary labor and a useless expenditure of money.

We request your full cooperation in this matter so that more beneficial use of the road fund can be made.

This request is made pursuant to the authority vested in the County Court of the State of Oregon under Section 100-2301 et. seq. and Section 116-1206 of Oregon Compiled Laws Annotated.
