And We Don't Mean Sugar

We Mean Coal

We have more orders on file now than we can deliver for several days, but we still advise our patrons to order their winter coal supply now.

Every now and then we get a few carloads of coal and we deliver it as quickly as possible. Since each carload is filled with only one kind and size of coal, we deliver it to those whose orders are in for that kind. We never know what's coming next, or when until the car arrives.

We are doing our best to keep our service up to par. Thanks for ordering in advance.
