

The Gate City Journal

KLASS V. POWELL - - - - - Editor and Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION RATES		ADVERTISING RATES
One Year	$2.00	Open rate, per inch	35c
Six Months	$1.25	National, per inch	35c
Single Copies	.05	Classifieds, per word	2c
(Strictly in Advance)		Minimum
		30c

Published every Thursday at Nyssa, Malheur County, Oregon. Entered at the postoffice at Nyssa, Oregon for transmission through the United States Mails, as second class matter, under the act of March 3, 1879.

SOME EDUCATION NEEDED FOR ROAD DISTRICT ELECTION

Sometime during the spring the residents of Nyssa and vicinity will be given the opportunity of voting upon the proposed creation of a road assessment district, an important matter to this community.

The city council received this week an order from the county court to hold an election within the city of Nyssa on the proposed district. The city council will decide within the next few days whether to hold a special election or place the proposal on the election ballot in the May primary. There are several reasons why the matter should be presented at a special election.

Voting upon the proposal will be restricted to property owners, who should make every effort possible to acquaint themselves with the provisions of the law. The matter is something that involves considerable money and work and should not be taken lightly or indifferently by voters.

Sponsors of the proposal should conduct an educational campaign in order to familiarize voters with the provisions. Both the good points and the bad points should be discussed. This proposal is a matter that should be considered jointly by the city and rural areas.

A dozen persons should not reach a decision for the community.

products which have been shipped out of the country. Most of the waste paper now being salvaged will be used to make cartons for overseas shipping.

The collection of waste paper will coincide with the Fourth War Loan Drive. Proceeds from sales of collections of waste paper may help schools meet the quotas assigned them in this drive, suggests Superintendent of Public Instruction Rex Putnam. In all cases schools have been urged to give due regard to the health of the children before collecting waste paper.

VOTES FOR SOLDIERS
The parents and friends of men in the armed forces can help in getting them a vote at the next election by informing them of the Oregon law.

Whether registered or not, explains Secretary of State Robert S. Farrell, Jr., a man in the armed forces may get a war ballot application from his commanding officer and mail it to the secretary of state, Salem, Oregon. The rest is easy.

LIQUOR BOARD PAYS
Ten days ahead of the date due the state liquor commission paid the state $2,200,000 which is borrowed to help finance the $3,700,000 deal by which the commission bought two Kentucky distilleries to acquire additional liquor. The money with $13,000 interest was not due until January 15.

TAXES IN CAPITALS
An investigation of tax rates in the various capitals of the U.S. made by the National Municipal League indicates that property owners in Oregon's capital have lower taxes than do those of other states. For Salem the tax is calculated at $26.45 for each $1,000 of property, while the average is $27.35.

NEW PAROLE EXECUTIVE
H. M. Randall, of Portland, is now executive director of the state parole board succeeding Fred Finney who resigned to resume law practice in Fossil. Randall was until recently connected with the city attorney's office in Portland.

CAPITAL SHORTS
Applications for 1944 motor vehicle licenses now total two-thirds the number of vehicles which will be operated in Oregon this year.

Harold J. Turner has been named director of emergency railroad trammed the life sentence of James H. Schultze to eight years. Oregon's industrial accident toll remained at about 50 percent of normal this week, only 791 accidents being reported. On the same day last week that California's Governor Earl Warren decided to call a special session of the legislature Oregon's Governor Earl Snell decided not to call a special session.

Owyhee

Evangelistic services will be held at the Owyhee school house every evening next week beginning January 23 at 8 o'clock. Rev. Robert Kriner of Payette will be the evangelist. Everyone is invited.

The Owyhee P.T.A. met at the school house Thursday evening with a good attendance. Mrs. Edna Farris and Mrs. Claypool of Vale were speakers. Refreshments of sandwiches, pickles and coffee were served by Mrs. H. Robb and Mrs. Pete Wilson.

Results of the Christmas seal drive in this district to date is $71.84, which includes a bond purchased by the Owyhee P. T. A.

Those who have been appointed to solicit for the 4th war bond drive in the Owyhee district are as follows: Mitchell Butte section, Mrs. Harold Fivecoat; Sunset valley, Hub Robb; and lower end of district, Charles Culbertson, Mrs. Blanche Hite and Martha Klingback.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bigelow entertained at dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gregg and son, Richard, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gueck and son, Larry.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stephens and two sons have moved to the Frank Crocker ranch, which they recently purchased. Mr. and Mrs. Crocker have moved to Nyssa.

Born, December 29, at Junction City, Oregon, to Pfc. and Mrs. G. L. McMillan, a daughter, who has been named Kathleen Ann. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan are former Owyhee teachers.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rice at the Ontario hospital, January 11, a daughter, named Lanna.

Delene. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Slippy of Nyssa were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gregg.

Unusual Talk Given By Hall

(Continued From Page 1)
outlet to the outside world. She considers it her historic need.

"In modern times the straits have been controlled either by Turkey or by the concert of powers. Control began with Turkey and ended with Turkey. The concert of powers came to an agreement over control of the straits without going to war. The problem of the straits has been the weakness of Turkey. Turkish supremacy lasted about four centuries to the 18th century. The problem arose when Russia started expanding south.

"After world war I, although Turkey was defeated she became a strong power. In 1936 Turkey asked for the right to militarize the straits. While Turkey is strong there is no particular danger of conflict over the straits. Will Russia become so strong that she will seek to extend her control over this area? If she does there probably will be war."

After discussing the interests of various European nations in the straits, Dr. Hall explained why Russia did not succeed in her claim to control them. She made several attempts. In 1774 Russia gained special rights from the Turkish sultans. In 1833 she partially gained control through a sultan, but the other powers made Russia promise protection of Turkey would apply to all of the nations. In 1915 Russia gained control of Constantinople and the straits on paper. England and France signed a treaty that gave this territory to Russia, but they never made good on their pledge.

"Russia has never achieved her ambition," the speaker said, "because she has never been strong enough."

The allies have benefitted by Turkey controlling the straits, Dr. Hall said, hinting that Turkey may break her neutrality, step to the side of the allies and provide an invasion spot in Europe.

On behalf of the chamber, President George Mitchell welcomed the guests to the banquet. The only other talk of the evening was given by R. G. Larson, who reminded those present of the fourth war loan drive, which started Tuesday.

Frank T. Morgan, toastmaster, and secretary of the chamber of commerce for nearly 20 years, opened the meeting by introducing Mr. Mitchell and presenting the high school minute maids, who sang two selections, accompanied by Mrs. John Young.

Miss DarTheil Bybee sang two solos, "My Hero" and "Say a Prayer for the Boys Over There". Robert McDonald played two Sousaphone solos and Miss Margaret Sarazin played two flute solos.

The dinner was served by Miss Virginia VanSlyke, home economics instructor, and girls of the home economics department of the high school.

Our Boys

(Continued From Page 1)
ssa High. I just received a paper this morning dated Dec. 6, and got the latest scoop. I see where most of the boys I went to school with are in the service now. Just about every time I get a school paper I see where a couple more boys joined the armed forces, so that shows the old school spirit.

I see where the football team did pretty well this year and no doubt they will take the basketball championship or at least I hope so. We will all be backing them from over here.

Myself, I am O.K., I have been in combat at Tarawa Atoll and in the Gilbert group and came through O.K. outside of a few bruises and a scratch or two. Before that I was in New Zealand, and had some nice times there.

I haven't heard from Shelley for sometime. The last time I heard from him was in New Zealand and he was O.K. I'll close with wishing Nyssa High a happy new year."

Corporal Joseph Harold Callahan.

who is stationed with the army in or near Alaska, said he enjoys life on the snow and ice, skiing and occasionally going moose hunting. Santa Claus was good to all the boys in service in the Alaskan area. The Red Cross sent cookies, cakes and candies to the servicemen.

Unusual Talk Given By Hall

(Continued From Page 1)
outlet to the outside world. She considers it her historic need.

"In modern times the straits have been controlled either by Turkey or by the concert of powers. Control began with Turkey and ended with Turkey. The concert of powers came to an agreement over control of the straits without going to war. The problem of the straits has been the weakness of Turkey. Turkish supremacy lasted about four centuries to the 18th century. The problem arose when Russia started expanding south.

"After world war I, although Turkey was defeated she became a strong power. In 1936 Turkey asked for the right to militarize the straits. While Turkey is strong there is no particular danger of conflict over the straits. Will Russia become so strong that she will seek to extend her control over this area? If she does there probably will be war."

After discussing the interests of various European nations in the straits, Dr. Hall explained why Russia did not succeed in her claim to control them. She made several attempts. In 1774 Russia gained special rights from the Turkish sultans. In 1833 she partially gained control through a sultan, but the other powers made Russia promise protection of Turkey would apply to all of the nations. In 1915 Russia gained control of Constantinople and the straits on paper. England and France signed a treaty that gave this territory to Russia, but they never made good on their pledge.

"Russia has never achieved her ambition," the speaker said, "because she has never been strong enough."

The allies have benefitted by Turkey controlling the straits, Dr. Hall said, hinting that Turkey may break her neutrality, step to the side of the allies and provide an invasion spot in Europe.

On behalf of the chamber, President George Mitchell welcomed the guests to the banquet. The only other talk of the evening was given by R. G. Larson, who reminded those present of the fourth war loan drive, which started Tuesday.

Frank T. Morgan, toastmaster, and secretary of the chamber of commerce for nearly 20 years, opened the meeting by introducing Mr. Mitchell and presenting the high school minute maids, who sang two selections, accompanied by Mrs. John Young.

Miss DarTheil Bybee sang two solos, "My Hero" and "Say a Prayer for the Boys Over There". Robert McDonald played two Sousaphone solos and Miss Margaret Sarazin played two flute solos.

The dinner was served by Miss Virginia VanSlyke, home economics instructor, and girls of the home economics department of the high school.

voted to the construction and use of a homemade sprinkler system by which ammonium nitrate may be applied as a water solution to various kinds of crops, particularly pasture and hay land.

Unusual Talk Given By Hall

(Continued From Page 1)
outlet to the outside world. She considers it her historic need.

"In modern times the straits have been controlled either by Turkey or by the concert of powers. Control began with Turkey and ended with Turkey. The concert of powers came to an agreement over control of the straits without going to war. The problem of the straits has been the weakness of Turkey. Turkish supremacy lasted about four centuries to the 18th century. The problem arose when Russia started expanding south.

"After world war I, although Turkey was defeated she became a strong power. In 1936 Turkey asked for the right to militarize the straits. While Turkey is strong there is no particular danger of conflict over the straits. Will Russia become so strong that she will seek to extend her control over this area? If she does there probably will be war."

After discussing the interests of various European nations in the straits, Dr. Hall explained why Russia did not succeed in her claim to control them. She made several attempts. In 1774 Russia gained special rights from the Turkish sultans. In 1833 she partially gained control through a sultan, but the other powers made Russia promise protection of Turkey would apply to all of the nations. In 1915 Russia gained control of Constantinople and the straits on paper. England and France signed a treaty that gave this territory to Russia, but they never made good on their pledge.

"Russia has never achieved her ambition," the speaker said, "because she has never been strong enough."

The allies have benefitted by Turkey controlling the straits, Dr. Hall said, hinting that Turkey may break her neutrality, step to the side of the allies and provide an invasion spot in Europe.

On behalf of the chamber, President George Mitchell welcomed the guests to the banquet. The only other talk of the evening was given by R. G. Larson, who reminded those present of the fourth war loan drive, which started Tuesday.

Frank T. Morgan, toastmaster, and secretary of the chamber of commerce for nearly 20 years, opened the meeting by introducing Mr. Mitchell and presenting the high school minute maids, who sang two selections, accompanied by Mrs. John Young.

Miss DarTheil Bybee sang two solos, "My Hero" and "Say a Prayer for the Boys Over There". Robert McDonald played two Sousaphone solos and Miss Margaret Sarazin played two flute solos.

The dinner was served by Miss Virginia VanSlyke, home economics instructor, and girls of the home economics department of the high school.

date line in the South Pacific and the last took place in remote outposts of the Aleutians. More than 160 units of the army, navy, marines, coast guard, Wacs, Waves, Spars and others contributed more than 1,000,000 dimes last year, it is pointed out by Basil O'Connor, president of the national foundation.

Unusual Talk Given By Hall

(Continued From Page 1)
outlet to the outside world. She considers it her historic need.

"In modern times the straits have been controlled either by Turkey or by the concert of powers. Control began with Turkey and ended with Turkey. The concert of powers came to an agreement over control of the straits without going to war. The problem of the straits has been the weakness of Turkey. Turkish supremacy lasted about four centuries to the 18th century. The problem arose when Russia started expanding south.

"After world war I, although Turkey was defeated she became a strong power. In 1936 Turkey asked for the right to militarize the straits. While Turkey is strong there is no particular danger of conflict over the straits. Will Russia become so strong that she will seek to extend her control over this area? If she does there probably will be war."

After discussing the interests of various European nations in the straits, Dr. Hall explained why Russia did not succeed in her claim to control them. She made several attempts. In 1774 Russia gained special rights from the Turkish sultans. In 1833 she partially gained control through a sultan, but the other powers made Russia promise protection of Turkey would apply to all of the nations. In 1915 Russia gained control of Constantinople and the straits on paper. England and France signed a treaty that gave this territory to Russia, but they never made good on their pledge.

"Russia has never achieved her ambition," the speaker said, "because she has never been strong enough."

The allies have benefitted by Turkey controlling the straits, Dr. Hall said, hinting that Turkey may break her neutrality, step to the side of the allies and provide an invasion spot in Europe.

On behalf of the chamber, President George Mitchell welcomed the guests to the banquet. The only other talk of the evening was given by R. G. Larson, who reminded those present of the fourth war loan drive, which started Tuesday.

Frank T. Morgan, toastmaster, and secretary of the chamber of commerce for nearly 20 years, opened the meeting by introducing Mr. Mitchell and presenting the high school minute maids, who sang two selections, accompanied by Mrs. John Young.

Miss DarTheil Bybee sang two solos, "My Hero" and "Say a Prayer for the Boys Over There". Robert McDonald played two Sousaphone solos and Miss Margaret Sarazin played two flute solos.

The dinner was served by Miss Virginia VanSlyke, home economics instructor, and girls of the home economics department of the high school.

GIFTS TO POLIO FUND ARE ASKED

President Roosevelt's birthday on January 30 will be celebrated around the clock this year, as never before.

Reports to The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis indicate that American men and women in military service in all parts of the world are planning various kinds of celebrations during which they will "back the attack" against an enemy at home—infantile paralysis, which in 1943 alone claimed some 12,000 victims, more than three times the number of casualties at Pearl Harbor.

Last year American fighting men and women started and ended the celebration of the President's birthday. The first occurred just west of the international

Go To California

Mr and Mrs Charles Garrison left Sunday morning for southern California to visit relatives.

Go To Portland

Clarence M. Zink left Friday for Portland for a three-week visit with his daughters, Mrs. V. C. LaBow and Mrs. June Fetter. He will also visit in Washington.

BRONCHIAL COUGHS

Bronchial Irritations Due to Colds Needn't Worry You
Pour yourself a teaspoon of Buckley's CANADOL Mixture—let it lie on your tongue a moment then swallow slowly. Feel its quick powerful effective action spread through throat, head and bronchial tubes. Acts like a flash. Right away it starts to loosen thick, choking phlegm and open up clogged bronchial tubes. Over 12 million bottles sold in cold wintry Canada. A single sip will tell you why. Spend 45 cents today at any good drug store for a bottle of Buckley's CANADOL Mixture.

Nyssa Pharmacy

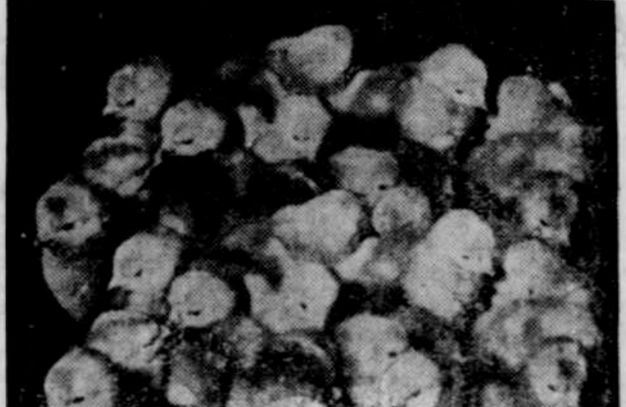

Order NORTHLAND Seeds NOW!

THIS YEAR when good American seeds must stretch 'round the world to supply our Allies, Northland Brand seeds cannot be as plentiful on your local market as in other years. Order Northland Brand NOW to be sure of your supply of dependable, tested, fertile seeds of known origin.

Look for the Flying Goose on the bag—symbol of high quality seeds for 60 years. Consult your local Northrup, King & Co. dealer or write to us for information.

Northrup, King & Co. BOISE, IDAHO

Bred-to-Lay CHICKS Mean Profits

Take the gamble out of your poultry flock. Buy chicks that are bred-to-lay—chicks that are from good-laying, healthy stock—then you will know there is profit in poultry and we guarantee

100 Per Cent Delivery from reliable hatcheries.
Our Started Chicks are all Purina-Fed. First chicks will arrive February 1. Give us your orders early.

$14 Per Hundred
Al Thompson & Son
Phone 26 2nd and Good Ave.

Capital Parade
By Murray Wade

SANITATION PROCRASTINATION
It looks like the cities of Oregon finally will have to stop polluting the streams of the state. The Oregon Wildlife Federation and the commercial fishing interests initiated a measure titled "Water purification and prevention of pollution bill". It was adopted at the 1938 election by a vote of more than

Bernard Eastman
Insurance Real Estate
Phone 64 OREGON
NYSSA

ATTENTION HOG RAISERS:
I wish to announce that in receiving hogs at Homedale, Idaho and Nyssa, Ore., I am resuming my former practice of paying the best price market conditions permit at the time of delivery and in addition thereto any additional amount that favorable sale of hogs might make possible after expenses and a modest handling charge are deducted. SELL WHERE THERE IS NO COMMISSION, NO SHRINK, NO EXTRA EXPENSE INCURRED THROUGH A LARGE NUMBER OF MEN REQUIRED TO HANDLE YOUR HOGS. And where you can see and check the weight of your hogs yourself. For Friday's price phone 33 JJJ Homedale or 111R Nyssa on Thursday evenings.
FRANK KULLANDER, NYSSA ORE.

Cafe Under New Management

Mr and Mrs Dave Thomas have leased the former Aunt Jo's cafe and have taken charge of the business.

We cater to small parties now and after our remodeling we will serve dinners to large crowds. We will continue service during the remodeling.

Open every day from 5 a.m. to 12 p. m.
"Come as you are—Everybody Welcome"

Gate City Cafe

IT IS SAID "REMEMBER PEARL HARBOR"
Preadventure, WORLD WAR 11, is fulfilling Dan. 9,25:
Sept. 1, 1939, to Dec. 7, 1941 equals 829 days, plus Dec. 7, to Dec. 17, 1945 equals 1471 or a total of 2300 days. Daniel 8, 14.
B. C. 1491, Ex. 12, to A. D. 1827, (gold plates received, from whence came the book of Mormon) equals 3318 yrs.
829 L. Y. days, and 12th hour. Mat. 25,6: Dan. 10,21:
"Scriptures of truth; --"is cast down" "practised and prospered".

The Outcast

Serving 5 Counties From the Largest Stock of Genuine

Orders Shipped Immediately

Mc Cluer - Manser
Phone 49 Payette, Idaho

Painter and Decorator
Only inside work from now until spring.
Free Estimate
775 First St.
Andy McGinnis

RATES:
advance

MISC

REAL EST
6-room r
cation. $2
Farm, we combination
Good buy a Farm, we modern hou
Two 80-ac
Five miles f
39 acres, w upment incl $8900.

FOR SALE
4 new-
4 sale-
Charles New

FOR SALE
gills, boars, north, 3 w

LOST—Pair
tween Desse
D.S. church
Contact Jou
sa. Reward

FOR SALE
ance, $11.50
Other Rate
Meets State's

FOR SALE
$100 to $300 realtor.

LOST—Bulo
M., in Nyss
Journal offic

WANTED—or 5 room h in or near f ent resident

WANTED—C wheels for 1
John Deere, Nyssa.

WANTED—E Edmond at yard or call paid on deliv

E.V
Auto
Reborin
ing, Lat and
PH

PI
BUS

D
J. F

NYSS

JEWEL

JEWEL
Union Pr
JEWEL

Main

JEWEL
Officia

ONTAR

Work
E.
WATC
R
J
Pr

NEXT D
PARMA