1 Minute Sermon
 (When the fire fell)
 And Lot—said, Up, get you out of this place; for the Lord will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked until his sons-in-law. Gen. 19:14 God had spoken, judgment was certain and at last God's precepts had penetrated the carnal mind of Lot. He had had his way, he had plucked his tent toward Sodom and God had let him have his fill of that wicked city—his righteous soul had been vexed from day to day. He had sowed to the flesh but now his eyes were opened and he wanted his kintfolk to escape with him, but his new turn to pity seemed foreign to the ears of his daughters and sons-in-law and they would not hear. He had not been the kind of father and example to his children and now it was too late. The Angels, God's messengers, fairly dragged him and his two younger daughters from the city. They were dressed in white robes and their faces were as of flint. They were surrounded in his heart, his own children among them. My friend, what kind of father are you? The children in your care are God's heritage, what are you doing for their safety in the Lord? Your first duty is to bring these precious souls up in the fear and admonition of the Lord. Do you have a family worship hour? Do you take your family to church and Sunday School? Do you love God and teach your children the love of God? Listen, you may neglect this sacred duty and cater to your own selfish desires and end come as Lot—burned out and become a mockery to your children! Seek God while you may—call upon Him when He may be found for you have no assurance of tomorrow. Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap. Gal. 6:7.
