

TOWN and FARM in WARTIME

Prepared by OFFICE OF WAR INFORMATION

TOWN AND FARM OFF-HIGHWAY GAS COUPONS EXPIRE

Farmers and other non-highway gasoline users are notified by the Office of Price Administration that "E" and "R" coupons, not serially numbered, will expire November 1 and may be exchanged for valid ration currency at their Local War Price and Rationing Board. The expiring coupons can be identified by two points. First, they have no serial numbers, and, second, they bear the capital letters "E" and "R" with no number after them. Currently valid coupons bearing serial numbers are lettered "E-1", "E-2", "R-1, and "R-2".

NOVEMBER AUTO QUOTA SET

The quota of new passenger cars available for rationing in November is set at 3,000 by the Office of Price Administration, or the same number as in the past two months. In addition a regional and national reserve of 600 cars has been authorized. The stockpile of new cars available for rationing is now under 20,000—less than a normal pre-war two-day supply.

MORE CHILDREN'S APPAREL ON WAY

America's consumers from six months to 16 years—not to mention their mothers will be cheered by the fact that the War Production Board has taken further steps toward all-ocating materials in its third infants' and children's apparel program calling for production and distribution of roundly 30,000,000 units from December 1 through next February 28. WPB has given priority assistance to producers to obtain cotton and flannelette fabrics. Outerwear, pajamas and underwear are included in the current children's apparel program. Low cost goods are expected to be available to retail goods of durable quality is stressed. The increased quantities of apparestores during the first quarter of 1945. The first program, announced December 24, 1943, called for 24,832,000 garments and the second, on May 10, 1944 scheduled output of 24,781,000 units.

CLOTHING CONTROLS TO PROTECT PUBLIC

Public interest will require that War Production Board controls over leather and cotton textile industries be maintained after the fall of Germany to guard against possible disruptive shortages in those fields, J. A. Krug, WPB Chairman, said. He cited considerable depletions of inventories of these commodities as a factor. "These basic commodities are in tight supply and will be protected through continuance of WPB directive powers and allocation controls after controls in most other fields have been abolished", said Chairman Krug. "However, even in these industries the controls will be removed as soon as production is seen to be meeting minimum essential civilian requirements." On the basis of current figures it would take some time after the end of the war in Europe to replace existing shortages and return to a minimum working supply level.

SUMMER WORKER LOSS HITS WAR WORK

The return of students and teachers to their classrooms, plus women who have gone back to being housewives and workers who have quit war-time jobs to go into post-war jobs with the notion the war is about over has resulted in a seasonal loss to war plants of over one million workers, according to September figures of the War Manpower Commission. Despite concern over this loss in workers, government officials agree that the return of students to schools is in the best interests of our democracy.

SOLDIERS BETTER EDUCATED NOW

American soldiers in this war are better educated than those who fought in the last war, studies by the United States Office of Education, Federal Security Agency and the War Department indicate. Median level of education of soldiers in this war is the second year of high school, whereas that level was only the sixth grade grammar school in the last war. In this war 23.3 percent of our fighters had completed four years of high school in contrast with only 3.5 percent of the soldiers in the previous war. The two largest groups in both wars included those who had completed no more than five to eight years of grade school, with a percentage of 27.4 in this war as against 55.5 percent in the last war.

5-YEAR RURAL ELECTRIFICATION PROPOSED

A five-year rural electrification program that would create a $5,546,283,000 outlet for goods and services and provide electric service to 3,655,000 rural homes was declared possible in a preliminary report submitted by the Rural Electrification Administration Post-War Committee to the United States Department of Agriculture.

PROHIBITION AND ITS COMPANION EVILS

1. Is it fair to the Service Men while they are away?

Approximately 100,000 service men and women from Oregon cannot vote on this question. Is it fair to permit prohibition to be slipped over again in 1944 as was done in 1918? You can protect them by voting 313 X NO!

2. If they get away with this, will all Beverages be next?

So far this "Burke Bill" pertains only to beverages over 14% alcohol by volume. But if they slip over this much—the light beverages will be NEXT! You can protect yourself by voting 313 X NO.

3. What will this "Joker" do right now?

It will prohibit you from serving any guests your usual hospitality beverages in your club or at home—unless you want to risk severe penalties. Look out for this dangerous "JOKER".

READ "THE JOKER" IN THE "BURKE BILL" PURPOSE FOR YOURSELF

"Purpose: Requiring all intoxicating liquor containing over 14 per cent of alcohol by volume, including fortified wine, except for sacramental purposes, to be sold exclusively by stores and agencies operated by the Oregon liquor control commission, and making it unlawful for any other person, firm or corporation to sell, offer for sale, or GIVE TO ANY PERSON any such wines or liquors, except for sacramental purposes. Violation of this act is made punishable by fine and/or imprisonment."

Let's Be Sure!

These things we are sure of:

1. The war is going okey.
2. The farm prices are okey.
3. Labor is better off than at any time in its history.
4. Business is netting its greatest profits in its history.

And who is unemployed? (Try to hire someone for anything)

Your money is safe in our banks.

Farms aren't being foreclosed.

Who's kicking? The same bunch who objected to rearmament, "arms embargo", "selective service" and "lend-lease". These acts were carried by a democratic majority—voted against by a republican majority. This country is blessed with a great leader, recognized and loved by our allies, respected and honored by our armed forces.
