

RODEO PROCEEDS PLACED AT $6296

The financial report on the Malheur amateur rodeo held in Ontario in August, issued this week, reveals that receipts totaled $6296.41.

The receipts include $200 advanced by the Lions club for change, $200; Ontario merchants donations, $1298.50; gate admissions, $4183.41, and entry fees from contestants, $614.50.

This year's proceeds increases the fund for future rodeos to more than $3000.

An auditing committee composed of Lonnie Ward, Roy Brewer and Wayne Guilford, members of the Sage and Saddle club, which sponsored the rodeo, assisted by the Owyhee Riding club of Nyssa, met in the city hall in Ontario Monday night with Hap Logue, secretary, and audited the books and compiled the report.

Mrs America Meets The War

No gnashing of teeth over nuts this fall, Mrs America, for OPA tells us the nut crop is expected to be 15 percent above last year, and that's 47 percent above the average. Now is the time for making that nut bread you've been planning.

And speaking of nut bread—why not banana nut bread. Now there's a real treat to put in the family lunch boxes. We should be seeing a few more bananas on the markets soon, too, for the removal of certain shipping restrictions is expected to increase civilian supplies.

However, bananas will be coming into the country via New Orleans as west coast ports become more and more clogged with military personnel, so prices here may be higher to reflect cross-country shipping costs.

There'll still be plenty of orange blossoms for war-time weddings, but the fruit itself is going to be scarce in the west for the next five or six weeks. Until the new orange crop is in you may have to shop around to find your citrus.

"The real p.eat and the stuff cuff" are going to be available once more to the boys as the war production board eases clothing restrictions this fall. While the ladies are assured of more material for ruffles and such frillery dear to the feminine heart, their high school sons will again wear patch pockets, belted jackets and trouser pleats. There will be no change in the prohibition against vests with double-breasted suits, however, nor again at the college crowd's favorite—"two pairs pants". If Mr. America is thinking longingly of returning to his pipe and slippers by the fireside, WPB promises more wool smoking jackets and bathrobes for your christmas gift to him.

Do you drown your dishes in catsup, and have you been missing the red sauce the year? Then things are looking up, for war food administration has released over 15 thousand cases of America's popular condiment to west coast purchasers.

The meat, fat, and cheese budget should be definitely in the red these days, for OPA announced four more red stamps in book four which became valid the first of November.

That means L-5, M-5, N-5 and P-5 will bolster the buying power on these foods. Sandwich makers whose men demand meat in their noonday meals should remember that liverwurst is one of the point-free meats that always makes a hit. Try mashing some liverwurst, mixing it with mayonnaise and a little dry mustard for a different sandwich spread.
