

PHYLLIS HAWORTH BRIDE
OF EVERETT E. GIVENS
Last Monday evening, Miss Phyllis Haworth, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Haworth, and Mr. Everett E. Givens, son of Mrs. Walter Williams of Caldwell, were married in the St. Mary's Memorial church at Roswell in the presence of a large number of guests. Rev. J. E. Nevin of Adrian assisted by Rev. W. S. Thorn-dyke, performed the ceremony before an altar banked with calla lilies and red carnations. The white candles that flanked the altar were lit by her sister, Mrs. Wilbur Jones of Pittsburgh, California. Miss Haworth entered on the arm of her father as Mrs. J. E. Nevin played the wedding march. Her dress was of white fillet crepe, made on long lines with a train and an inset yoke of white net.

Her veil, hand-made in Belgium, was loaned by Mrs. Carl Newbury of Walnut Creek, California for the occasion and was worn by her two older sisters on similar occasions. The bride carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies tied with white tulle.

Miss Mildred Frohman of Roseburg, Oregon, a college classmate, was bridesmaid. She wore a floor-length dress of blue organza and carried pink carnations. Joe Hobson of Nyssa was best man. Ushers were Clifford Wolfe of Nyssa and Lyle Rogers of Caldwell.

Proceeding the ceremony Basil Rogers of Nyssa, uncle of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always".

Mrs. Walter Williams, wore a pink figured jersey and Mrs. Haworth wore a navy blue sheer dress. Both wore corsages of gardenias and carnations.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Givens are graduates of Adrian high school. Mrs. Givens attended Willamette university one year and at the time of her marriage was a sophomore at Oregon State college. Mr. Givens has served in the navy for the past three years as an aviation mechanic's mate, 1st class, and is now stationed at Whidby Island naval base, where they will live.

After the wedding a reception was held in the Sunday school rooms. The refreshment table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, appropriately decorated and topped by miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Alva Watt of Parma and Mrs. Wilbur Jones poured. They were assisted by Miss Virginia Miller, Miss Mary Weir, Mrs. Flora Bell and Mrs. Dudley Mausing.

EVELYN BAIR MARRIES
Miss Evelyn Bair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bair, became the bride of Raymond Schulthies of Woods Cross, Utah at a temple marriage in Salt Lake City March 26.

The newlyweds returned to Nyssa to spend several days with the bride's parents. They will go to Spokane, where they will visit Mr. Schulthies' brother, Avon, who is in the armed forces there.

A miscellaneous shower was given in their honor Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents. Yellow daffodils comprised the floral centerpiece of the table and the Easter motif was carried out in the luncheon served to 25 guests.

The couple were also honored at a buffet luncheon held Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bair. A large table was set Easter fashion and a regular Easter party was held indoors because of the cold weather.

The gathering was also held in remembrance of LeRoy Bair, who has spent 32 months overseas and is now a prisoner of war. Nineteen guests each wrote part of a "round robin" letter to be sent to LeRoy Bair, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bair.

Special numbers were given by Zack Walker, who sang several "cowboy" songs in real western fashion. Many dancers were clad in western style costumes. The Idaho Wranglers, with their own original rhythm, furnished the music. The entertainment chairman, W. L. Lane announced that all who wished to contribute to the Red Cross could toss their contributions on the platform and the response was generous.

At least one dance a month is expected to be given by the club if facilities are available.

The bride wore a gown with white princess style satin bodice, with a long flowing train of white tulle, on which were many tiny satin bows. Her veil was finger-tip length, caught at the crown with a circlet of flowers. The groom was in full dress uniform. The bride's mother chose an afternoon rose colored dress. Dorothy Snader, the bridesmaid, wore a floor-length gown of blue lace with embossed white flowers. The ring bearers were the bride's brother and sister, Tommy and Amy Lewis, who entered first, presenting the rings on little satin cushions. Gladys Lewis played the wedding march, and Louise Lewis took charge of the gift tables.

The wedding cake was trimmed in pink and yellow roses, and blue forget-me-nots, with a miniature bride and groom atop. The couple cut the cake together.

The rooms were decorated with many bouquets of yellow daffodils and tall blue and yellow candles in candelabrum about the rooms. A four-course buffet dinner was served to 50 invited guests.
