

ALOHA MAW BRIDE OF BURL WYCKOFF

In a double ring ceremony Tuesday afternoon, April 16 in the Methodist Community church at Nyssa, Miss Aloha Maw, daughter of Harlan V. Maw, became the bride of Burl Wyckoff, son of Chris C. Wyckoff of Baker. Vows were read by Rev. H. J. Gernhardt before an altar decorated with pink and white apple blossoms and yellow forsythia.

The bride wore a gold afternoon dress with black accessories and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses.

As Miss Maw entered on the arm of her father, Mrs. Carlos Buchner, maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Idaleen Maw of Nyssa, who wore a two-piece aqua suit with a gardenia corsage. Oscar Bratton, cousin of the bridegroom, was groom's man. A powder blue suit was worn by Mrs. Chris Wyckoff. The bride's mother wore a blue afternoon dress. A corsage of gardenias was worn by each. Ushers were Edward and Irwin Topliff.

Oscar Bratton sang "If I Were King".

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the church with the bride cutting a three-tier wedding cake with miniature bride and groom. The table was covered with lace and was decorated with yellow candles and a bouquet of daffodils and forsythia. Mrs. W. W. Foster and Mrs. John Ridder assisted in pouring.

The couple left for a visit at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Baker. R. T. 3-c Wyckoff will return soon to his station in Chicago.

The bride is a graduate of Nyssa union high school with the class of 1943. She attended Willamette university during the fall and winter terms. Mr. Wyckoff graduated from Nyssa union high school in 1940 and attended the College of Idaho at Caldwell until he was enlisted in the navy.

FORMER ADRIAN COUPLE WED
A quiet wedding ceremony was performed in Reno, Nevada April 7 at 1 o'clock when Miss Virginia Mae Jarvis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jarvis of Adrian became the bride of Elbert Clark Hatch, F. I. c. son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hatch, also of Adrian.

The wedding ceremony was read by the Reverend Ekleburg in the parsonage of the Tiny chapel. Mrs. Mary Hinman of Parma was matron of honor and Donald Hatch was best man for his brother.

Miss Jarvis wore an afternoon dress of powder blue silk and wool gabardine made along military lines with white accessories. Miss Jarvis wore a small gold cross sent from Belgium by an uncle of the groom. Her corsage was of white orchids.

Mrs. Hinman wore a petal pink chartreuse afternoon dress with brown accessories and a corsage of white gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Jarvis, mother of the bride, wore a fuchsia dressmaker's suit and Mrs. Hatch wore a soldier blue afternoon dress with black accessories.

Following the ceremony the wedding party attended a wedding dinner in the gold room of the El Cortez hotel, where the organist played special music for the occasion. The dinner table was centered with an arrangement of pink and white sweetpeas and white tapers.

Mrs. Hatch wore a printed jersey with navy accessories for her traveling ensemble.

Mrs. Hatch attended schools in the Adrian community and graduated in 1944 from Adrian high school. She enrolled in school at LaGrande last fall.

The groom, who spent his boyhood in the Big Bend community, is a graduate of the Adrian high school. He is a member of the coast guard and has been in service in the Pacific for the last 20 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatch returned to San Francisco after spending a few days at the Sparks lodge in the Sierra Nevada mountains, where Mrs. Hatch will reside while her husband is in the service.

CLUB GIVES PROGRAM

After a short business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. A. L. Fletcher, a program was given at a meeting of the Nyssa Civic club Wednesday afternoon in the parish hall before a large crowd.

The program consisted of two songs by June Savage, accompanied by Mary Lou Schenk at the piano, a violin solo by Twila Crawford and talks by Silas Summers on the Dumbarton Oaks conference and City Manager Burton on the city manager form of government.

The tea committee consisted of Mrs. Carlos Buchner and Mrs. Herbert Fisher.
