200 MOTHERS AND GIRLS ATTEND ANNUAL TEA

More than 200 mothers and girls attended the annual tea given by the Girls league members in honor of their mothers in the gymnasium Wednesday afternoon.

This year, in addition to the mothers of high school girls, the mothers included on the guest list were: Dorothy Bartholoma; sophomore representative, Darlene Sayle; freshman guardian, Mardie Sallee; and song leaders, Patsy Gwynn and Ellen Ann Herrman.

The program was given as follows: Marjorie Bishop, vocal solo, "When the Sun Goes Down"; welcome, Claudine Tomlinson, 1945 president; mothers response, Mrs. W. W. Foster; June Savage, vocal solo, "Just a Prayer Away"; Eunice Ann Brady, piano solo, "Minute Waltz"; "Bouncing Blues", Lois Thelma Florea, president of the G. A. Home Ec. club, was the reader.

At the punch table, Mrs. Cora Tomlinson, mother of this year's president of the Girls league, poured. Mrs. Emil Stuntz, mother of next year's president, presided at the tea table.

As the mothers entered the gymnasium, the sophomore girls presented each mother with a corsage of sweetpeas.

The gymnasium was decorated with large baskets of apple blossoms and lilacs on the stage and smaller baskets of spring flowers about the room. The tables were covered with lace cloths, with arrangements of tulips and narcissus as centerpieces.

The Home Ec. club served refreshments.

Mrs. Ada Haworth is the Girls league advisor and Miss Virginia Van Slyke is the home economics and G. A. A. advisor.

HAROLDSEN-SIPES NUPTIALS

Anne Haroldsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Haroldsen of Nyssa, Sgt. Sipes has just returned from and Mrs. Harry Sipes of Ridgeview, were married April 16 in Boise with R. W. Adams, justice of the peace, officiating. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnstone. The bridegroom's parents also attended the ceremony.

Sgt. Sipes has just returned from Agra, India, where he was stationed for two and one-half years. The bride has been employed in a Los Angeles war plant.

ADRIAN HOSTESS TO ASSOCIATED CLUBS

The Jolly Janes club of Adrian and Big Bend will be hostess to the associated clubs of Malheur county at their yearly club gathering in the Adrian high school building Thursday, May 24.

All clubs are invited to attend. Each lady is to provide a covered dish for the luncheon at noon. A special speaker has been engaged from Gowen field and an interesting program has been scheduled.
