HOLIDAY GREETINGS

Today's grownups are only yesterday's children who once stood before a fireplace on the Christmas Eves of the past, or who, just before Christmas, were as good as they could be.
The heart of the Christmas season is friendship and eternal youth, and we could not ask for finer friends than ours. It makes us happy to greet all our friends this Christmas season of 1945 with the best of Yuletide wishes.

Nyssa Funeral Home

To each of us the word Christmas summons many happy memories. To some it recalls a ride over the frozen countryside to grandma's, sleigh-bells tinkling all the while. To others it recalls happy reunions in mirth-filled living rooms, gay bouquets and glowing Christmas trees. But to all it recalls days of charm and endearment, the happiest days of our lives.
May you know this happiness in all its fullness once again, dear friends, this Christmas season of 1945.

Mrs. Ida M. Kielhorn of Portland announces the marriage of her daughter, Dorette Louise Kielhorn, to John Blixt, Jr., son of John Blixt, Sr. of Molalla, Oregon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Donald MacCleur Saturday, November 24 at 2:30 at the home of the bride's mother. The bride's grandfather, Fred Menneke, gave her in marriage. White chrysanthe-mums and candles over the fire-place were used to decorate where the ceremony took place.

The bride was attired in a white gown with satin bodice and tulle skirt, with satin flowers appliqued on the skirt and a long tulle veil falling from a headdress of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and bouvardia.

The bride's attendant was her only sister, Miss Helen Kielhorn. She wore a dress of blue net with a crown of red roses in her hair and carried an arm bouquet of red roses. The flower girl, Janet Matson, wore a dress of pink marquisette. She carried a nose-gay of for-get-me-nots and bouvardia.

Robert S. Bonn was best man. About fifty guests were present at the ceremony. A reception followed the rites at the bride's home. The Misses Anna Waiters and Frances Bonn and Mrs. Clifford A. Matson and Mrs. Robert Bonn assisted.

The couple left on a wedding trip to California following the ceremony. The bride chose a blue street dress as a going-away costume. She also wore a corsage of yellow roses.
