And Our Customers In Malheur County Shared In the Benefits

Perhaps we would be entitled to boast a little about having made nine reductions in electric rates in ten years. But we'd rather look upon it as the accomplishment of a goal—the goal of sharing with you and our other customers the benefits of reductions made in our costs, the growth of the territory and consequent increase in use of electric service—all the things which help reduce the cost of providing electricity.

That policy, too, is your best assurance of still lower electric rates in the future.
