

PTA HOLDS MEETING

The Adrian high school community needs to look into the causes of undue school absenteeism," said John Coleman at the January meeting of the Kingman Colony P. T. A.

A round table discussion followed Mr. Coleman's statement and members present expressed a desire to promote better school attendance.

The program was completed by two selections from Mr. Weather-spoon's glee club girls, a clarinet duet by Carolyn Scheimer and Ilea Kreeger, and a vocal solo by De-Lora Hurst.

Mrs. H. H. George, Oregon's state P. T. A. president, is scheduled to hold a school of instruction February 2 at Ontario. All chairmen and interested members are invited to meet with her.

The next regular meeting will be held February 21, in observance of Founder's day.

VERNA RUTH FINDLING BRIDE OF PARMA MAN

At a candlelight ceremony in the Methodist church at 4 P. M. last Saturday, Miss Verna Ruth Findling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Findling of Nyssa, became the bride of Walter L. Obendorf Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walte. Obendorf of Parma. The Rev. H. J. Gernhardt read the double rings ceremony in the presence of rela-

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Cora Tomlinson has announced the engagement of her daughter, Claudine, to H. Richard Waddell, son of Rev. and Mrs. H. N. Waddell of Ione, Oregon. The young people were graduated from Nyssa high school. Miss Tomlinson in 1945 and Mr. Waddell in 1944.

The wedding will be held some time in May after the close of the school year at San Jose Bible college, where they are students. Mr. Waddell is studying to be a minister and Miss Tomlinson is taking music and an evangelistic course.

lives and close friends. The bride chose for her wedding a powder blue wool crepe suit with black accessories. Her bridal bouquet was of pink rosebuds and gardenias.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Laurence Findling, sister-in-law of the bride, who wore a black wool crepe suit with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Pfc. Arthur Obendorf, brother of the groom, was best man.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Arlene Jones of Parma sang "At Dawning" and "Because" accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Leonard Goodson, sister of the groom. Mrs. Goodson also played "Lohengrin's Wedding March" as the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, W. F. Findling who gave his daughter in marriage.

The groom's gift to the bride was a lovely strand of pearls.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle, Bernard Frost. Mrs. C. C. McVicker poured and Mrs. John Snyder cut and served the wedding cake.

Out-of-town residents attending were Mrs. Stanley Brown of Blackfoot, Idaho, Mrs. C. C. McVicker of Echo, Oregon and Mrs. James Griffin of Payette. Mrs. Obendorf is a graduate of the Nyssa high school. She has been employed the last two years in the Idaho Power company office at Parma.

Mr. Obendorf, is a graduate of the Roswell high school, finished primary and secondary flight training at the college of Idaho.

The couple left soon after the ceremony for a short honeymoon. Upon returning they will be at home on a farm south of Parma.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Garret Stam of Nyssa route 2 celebrated their 25 wedding anniversary Saturday evening, January 26 at the Oregon Trail schoolhouse. A program consisting of singing, dancing and several skits was presented. Frank Parr showed an interesting film of Holland and its colonies. Mr. and Mrs. Stam, who were married in Bergen, North Holland, received many lovely gifts and bouquets of flowers. The 67 guests were relatives and close friends. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Johanson, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Davidson of Parma, Mr. and Mrs. John Koopman, Mr. and Mrs. John Molenaar of Campbell were guests. Prizes in bridge went to Frank Morgan and R. G. Larson.

WEDNESDAY CLUB MEETS

Mrs. A. L. Maulding was hostess to the Wednesday evening club. Guests were Mrs. John Olson, Mrs. Artie Robertson and Mrs. B. Lien-aemper. Prizes were won by Mrs. Ed Frost, Mrs. Harry Miner and Mrs. Tom Burningham.

BRIDGE PLAYERS MEET

Members of the Tuesday evening bridge club met at the home of Mrs. Henry Hartley. Prizes were won by Mrs. J. J. Sarazin and Mrs. Ed Frost.

GIRL IS HONORED

Miss Greta Louise Stunz was guest of honor at a farewell surprise party arranged by Marie Se-jurn at Miss Stunz home Thursday evening.

The 14 classmates present presented Miss Stunz with a Schaffer pen. Refreshments included a two-tier angelfood cake, decorated with the words "Happy Landings, Greta."

Miss Stunz left Monday night for Colton, California where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. Gretchen Squires, for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Stunz will join them there and on Sunday they will leave for a vacation trip to be at Tegucigalpa, capital of Honduras, Central America. Miss Stunz expects to reach home about April 15 in time to graduate with her class from Nyssa high school.

FAMILY DINNER SERVED

A family dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Lewis Friday in honor of their son, Mural, who is home on leave from the navy, and the father, who celebrated his birthday. Covers were laid for 17.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Black of Mason, Texas, parents of Mrs. Letha Jeffrey of Nyssa, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary recently. Publishers of the Mason County News said Mr. and Mrs. Black "celebrated their anniversary in a very practical manner by butchering two 240-pound hogs."

Car Overhauling Still Essential!

With the strike situation as it is new car and truck deliveries will probably be slow for some time to come—even if the strikes are settled soon many of us will have to wait for new units. Now is the time to have your car or truck overhauled and prepared for spring and summer driving.

We now have sufficient personnel to take care of your needs and suggest that you have your work done now to avoid the spring rush.
