The mother of the little girl, Silvelle, wrote in part:
"Two days ago the parcel from Mrs. Smit arrived, in which she had put the shoes you were giving for a little Dutch friend. What a fine pair of shoes they are. In Holland, you know, her parents can hardly get good shoes and so they are very welcome.
"We were afraid the parcel had been lost, because it took nearly two and one-half months to arrive here. But, happily enough, it had only been delayed. Did you wear those shoes when you were a baby? They fit Silvelle as if they were made for her and she needs them because she just started to walk a fortnight ago. In this letter we enclose a snapshot of her, but it was taken some months ago.
"You know Donna sent us a little gown and that too has a fine fit. So we can make a real American kiddy out of Silvelle. If you want to know more about Silvelle as she becomes older just write us once in a while or call on Mrs. Smit because we do write her every so often".
