WEDS AT BOISE

Miss Maxine Cummings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Cummings of Boise, became the bride of Robert Dale Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Glenn Brown of Adrian, Oregon, at the First Methodist church in Boise on Sunday, August 25.

The Reverend Forrest Ward Werts officiated in the presence of 300 guests.

The bride's wedding gown was of white net with a taffeta bodice, and a veil which had been worn by her mother at her wedding. Her bouquet was of orchids, surrounded by gardenias. Miss Mary Helen Rounds, maid of honor, wore a blue gown similar to that of the bride, and carried a nosegay of carnations and pink rosebuds.

The bride's mother chose an afternoon dress of aqua crepe, and the bridegroom's mother wore a rose crepe dress. Both wore corsages of rosebuds and gardenias.

Ora Durham was best man and ushers were Ray Durham, Jerry Lawhead, Don Ray and Max Reineker.

Sue Murphy sang "Always", accompanied by Mrs. Loren Basler. A reception was held in the church parlors with Mrs. Gertrude Thomas in charge. Nine girls, classmates of the bride assisted with the serving.

Out of town guests present for the wedding and reception included the Reverend and Mrs. H. G. Luscombe of Seattle.

After a wedding trip to California, the couple will live in Boise while they attend Boise Junior college. Both are graduates of the Boise high school.

The groom was discharged from the armed forces this spring and until recently was employed at his father's store in Adrian.
