BARBARA LARSON WEDS
Miss Barbara Carolyn Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Larson of Nyssa became the bride of George R. Bauer of Corvallis at a double-ring ceremony in the home of her parents in Nyssa, Sunday, December 29.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, with Rev. George Whipple officiating.

The bride wore a traditional white satin wedding gown and a Juliet cape made of lace and seed pearls with finger-tip veil. Her bouquet was of gardenias and white bride's roses, tied with white streamers of ribbon and forget-me-not flowers.

Miss Lucille Sallee, maid of honor, wore a formal dress of seafoam green and carried a nosegay of sweetpeas and roses.

The bride's mother wore a black dress with black accessories, and wore a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. V. Benita of San Jose, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of teal blue with black accessories, and a corsage of gardenias.

Warner Bauer, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Raymond Larson, Jr., Dick Tensen and Robert Eldridge were ushers.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, with Mrs. Frank Van Petten of Ontario, and Mrs. A. C. Sallee of Nyssa, presiding at the table. Mrs. George Mitchell was in charge of gifts. Mrs. Hilda Tensen played the wedding march and incidental piano selections.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. E. G. Stunz, Miss Margaret Sarazin, Miss Martha Browne, and Miss Mardi Sallee.

The couple left for Portland for a short wedding trip, before returning to Corvallis, where they will make their home.

Mr. Bauer is attending Oregon State college in Corvallis and Mrs. Bauer is an instructor in the chemistry department there.

Fifty relatives and friends attended the ceremony and reception.

MARRIED IN IDAHO
Miss Evelyn Marie Evans and John A. Church were united in marriage at a candle-light service December 22 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Evans in New Meadows, Idaho.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. J. Rightmeyer of McCall. Mrs. Helen Grimm, Bancroft, Idaho, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor and Mr. Thomas Church, brother of the groom was best man.

The bride wore a lovely bridal gown of white lace bodice with ulla skirt and finger-tip veil, held back by gardenias, with a bridal bouquet of pink and white carnations, lilies of the valley and chrysanthemums.

The bride wore a lovely bridal gown of white lace bodice with ulla skirt and finger-tip veil, held back by gardenias, with a bridal bouquet of pink and white carnations, lilies of the valley and chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony, the bride cut the three-tiered cake. Mrs. Evans served cake, ice cream and coffee to the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Church and Bob, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Burrell, were present, as were the bride's brothers, Cliff of Payette and T. Sgt. Donald Evans of Fort Laughton, Washington. A few family friends of New Meadows were present.

After a short honeymoon in Ogden and Salt Lake City the couple will make their home in Nyssa.
