PLAY WELL RECEIVED

The three-act play presented by members of the Mutual Improvement Association of the L. D. S. church, which was given in the school gymnasium last Monday evening, was well received by the audience. Comic situations, including the principal's best coat being died by mistake and a pair of rabbits turning into real chin-chillas and having several litters amounting to $12,000, mixed with the love affairs of a high school student with the principal's daughter, caused much fun and excitement during the entire performance. Each character was very well portrayed. Drama directors including the principal's best coat being and Nina Cottle. Reed Ray and Mrs. Grant Jones and daughter furnished special music before and between the acts. The Vale L. D. S. ward has invited the cast to present the play at Vale Tuesday evening.
