

BASKETBALL SQUAD BANQUET IS HELD

ADRIAN (Special)—A farewell party was held for Jean Dille in the DeHaven home Tuesday evening. She will soon leave to make her home near Weiser. Eleven of her school-mates, Barbara Hatch, Joyce McGinnis, Donna Maria Peterson, Betty Lou Jarvis, Myrna Lane, Donna Lee Steelman, Fred Deffer, Everett Ausman, Charles Riddle, Donald Newbill, and Donald DeHaven, were present. They presented her with a parting gift of a lovely compact. Games were enjoyed. Mrs. George DeHaven served refreshments of salad, sandwiches, pickles, and olives.

Mrs. Elmer Sparks substituted Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Williams, the seventh and eighth grade teacher. On Wednesday Mrs. William Macgruder substituted for her. Mrs. Williams was absent because of illness.

Mrs. Robert Brown spent Tuesday in Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dille have moved to a ranch near Weiser, where they will farm this summer.

The fifth annual basketball banquet was held in the Adrian Union high school building March 12 at 7:30 p.m. It was sponsored by the Mary and Martha society. Approximately 175 were served the following menu: vegetable juice cocktail, roast beef, mashed potatoes, gravy, buttered peas, sweet potatoes, gelatin vegetable salad, pickles, hot rolls, jelly and butter, ice cream, angel food cake, and coffee.

The A-Team squad was composed of Donald Elliot, Donald Hatch, Wilbur Jackson, Iva Jensen, Roy Mechem, Dick Stam, Keith Stoker, Dean Wood, Martin Mittlesteadt, and Ross Lane, manager.

The B team were Emery Cameron, Leonard Clausen, George Elfers, Ted Holly, Fred Klingback, Glenn Trussell, Jess Stoker, Earl Packrell, manager; Vern Mechem, Henry Moore, Jr.; presentation of Keene, Joe Witty, Ray Landan, Jimmy Wilson, and Bennie Keller, manager.

In the class B tournament Adrian placed fourth. Donald Hatch was chosen on the 10 man all-star team.

Cheer leaders were Delores Salter and Ilea Kreager. Stanley E. Huffman was the coach. Donald Elliot was chosen honorary captain.

The program for the evening was as follows: Remarks, Rev. Henry E. Moore, toastmaster; return of thanks, Rev. E. Richey; a trio of girls, Ilea Kreager, Elaine Jones and Ardye Hurst, two selections; presentation of trophies, Wilbur Jackson, to the most enthusiastic woman, Mrs. Dan Holby; the most enthusiastic man, Vernon Parker, and the man who traveled most with the team, Howard Hatch; speech, "Mother's Appreciation," Mrs. Thelma Elliot; squad appreciation, a very clever skit given by the members of A and B teams; short speech, "Patron's Appreciation," Leslie Stoker; "One Player's Appreciation," Henry Moore, Jr.; presentation of award by Howard Hatch by Leroy Mechem; two selections, male chorus, Dick Stam, Jim Wilson, Don Elliot, Glenn Trussell, Walter Gray, and Keith Stoker, directed by Ray Weatherspoon. In the absence of Mr. Huffman, Howard Hatch gave a short talk in his behalf.

Mrs. Glenn C. Brown spent Thursday in Boise on business.

Several Adrian American Legionnaires attended the pot-luck supper held in Ridgeview Tuesday evening to celebrate the American Legion birthday.

Donna Maria Peterson was an overnight guest of Donna Lee Steelman Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Dierling were hosts to a group of friends at a pot-luck supper and pinocle party Sunday evening. High prize was won by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ashcraft, low prize by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Steelman, and traveling prize was won by Clyde Steelman.

The Mary and Martha society of the Community United Presbyterian church held a meeting in the home of Mrs. E. E. Eastman Thursday afternoon. Fifteen adult members and six children were present. New officers for the year were appointed. Refreshments of angel food cake with orange sauce and coffee were served by Mrs. Eastman and Mrs. L. W. Dierling.

Charles Riddle was pleasantly surprised on his birthday Friday evening, when his mother, Mrs. George Riddle, prepared a dinner and had four of his friends come to eat with him. The friends present were Fred Deffer, Donald Newbill, Everett Ausman, and Donald DeHaven. After dinner Mrs. Gayle Martin took the boys to Parma to the show.

The Parma Seed company recently purchased the Adrian feed store from R. E. Dille and Herbert Thomas. The new owners plan to install a coal yard in the future. They intend to continue selling Ranchway feeds and will have a complete stock of feed and garden seeds. Earl Winn will be the manager in Adrian.

Connie Lee Richards visited Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ashcraft. Her mother, Mrs. Dick Richards, and daughter, Diana, came for her on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown were dinner guests, Sunday, in the home of Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. Ray Alger, and family of Meridian. They were overnight guests Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Cummings, in Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Henderson and Clifford Looney were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sparks.

Members and friends of the Adrian Community church will meet Saturday with their shovels to level the basement for the new church building so that the contractor can build the forms for pouring the concrete.

If anyone is missed in the Red Cross drive he may leave his contribution at Eder's in Adrian.
