Spook Show Coming

The Nyssa theater announces that it will hold a midnight spook show Saturday midnight, August 16, featuring on the stage Valieu and company and on the screen "House of Dracula".
 Mr. Valieu (above) is known from coast to coast for his offering of hypnotism and spectacular magic. During the war Mr. Valieu and his company entertained thousands of boys in hospitals and camps. He has just recently completed an extended engagement of shows in the larger theaters in the east.

"Those attending the midnight spook show are in for a real treat of the display and explanation of hypnotism, its art and uses", theater manager Olean Wells said. "Along with the hypnotism, Mr. Valieu will present a generous offering of magic, which everyone should enjoy, (and who doesn't like magic?)
 "To know Mr. Valieu and his charming wife one will find that they are really master showmen, capable of presenting before the public an entertaining and interesting program seldom seen on the stage."
 The management also wishes to announce that on the screen will be shown "House of Dracula", featuring Lon Chaney and John Carradine. For the fans who like to freeze and scream, the picture is going to be a field day of macabre fun and should really please."

family left last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Rosel Anderson of Nyssa on a trip to the Yellowstone park. Mr. Larson will join his sister at Idaho Falls on the trip.
 The young people of Sunset valley, 20 or 25 boys and girls, met at Fay Callahan's home last Sunday evening after church for a party. Home-made candy and watermelons were served.
 Mrs. Everett Callahan honored her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durfee last Saturday evening with a birthday party. Twenty-five were present. Games were played on the lawn. Ice cream and cake and sandwiches were served. Mr. Callahan received several presents. Mrs. Durfee was presented with a beautiful radio by her children in observance of her 60th birthday.
