FARM BUREAU WILL MEET IN HOOD RIVER
"The annual meeting and convention of the Oregon Farm Bureau Federation will be held at the Columbia Gorge hotel, Hood River, November 18-21. Delegates and members from county Farm Bureaus all over the state will be in attendance," according to Charles Taylor, president of the Malheur County Farm Bureau. "The resolutions committee will be made up of the entire house of delegates. A 'questionnaire' has been sent out to all county Farm Bureaus covering the principle legislative issues of the day. From the positions taken by the county Farm Bureaus on these issues, the resolutions will be drawn". Each commodity meeting will have its chairman, the state commodity chairman of the state federation. Representatives of all other agricultural industry groups have been invited to attend and take part in the deliberations. Positions as expressed by resolutions in these groups will be incorporated in the general resolutions presented to the house of delegates.

"In that manner it will be possible to incorporate the thinking and desires of groups such as the Pacific Co-op Poultry Producers, Northwest Nut Growers, U. S. Hop Growers, Wheat Leagues, and countless other active organizations who have expressed a willingness to cooperate and coordinate their programs with our, where it is possible and beneficial to agriculture as a whole," stated W. Lowell Steen, president of the Oregon Farm Bureau Federation, in announcing the program.

Mr. Taylor and other Malheur county members will attend the state meeting. Anyone wishing to make the trip is asked to contact Mr. Taylor for transportation.
