GOLD AND GREEN BALL HELD AT OWYHEE

Beneath a ceiling of gold and green crepe paper, the L. D. S. Owyhee ward presented its first Gold and Green ball Wednesday, January 28 at the Oregon Trail schoolhouse, with approximately 225 persons attending.

The ball was given under the direction of the Young Men's and Young Women's Mutual Improvement association, with President Lila Mitchell as supervisor, assisted by Lee Stoker and Nathaniel Ashby of the M. I. A. presidency.

The queen was selected from a group of five eligible girls. To be eligible girls had to attend 75 per cent of their L. D. S. meetings. A drawing was held at a mutual meeting a week before the dance. Miss Marjorie Bishop drew the lucky ticket. The four remaining girls, Joyce Stoker, Marion Ballantyne, Delores Blanche and Mrs. Ruth Sessions were her honored attendants. The girls were given a gardenia corsage. A floor show was presented at intermission under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Roland R. Maw, ward dance directors, assisted by Mrs. Ruth Sessions. Mrs. Wayne Berrett played a piano solo in prelude to the coronation ceremonies. A short history of the M Men and Gleaner Girls organizations was read by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pike.

A grand march headed by the queen and her escort, Keith Stoker, put the members of the floor show group in their places for the coronation ceremonies. Brent Hartley was crown bearer and Claudia Peterson was flower girl.

Bishop Richard F. Maw placed the silver and gold crown on the queen's head, officially making her queen of the 1948 Gold and Green ball of the Owyhee ward.

RECEPTION HONORS COUPLE
A wedding reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bair, who were married January 21 in the Idaho Falls temple by President Smith, was held Friday evening in the Nyssa L.D.S. church, with approximately 300 friends and relatives attending. The bride was the former Miss Vivian Fife, daughter of Weiser Stake President and Mrs. Luther L. Fife. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bair, also of Nyssa.

The bride was lovely in a white satin floor-length gown, with full lace peplum, which tapered into a two-foot train. Her veil was wrist-length, trimmed with four-inch lace, and was held in place with a five-pointed crown. She carried a bouquet of a dozen red rosebuds, circled around a white satin bow. The bride's sister, Mrs. Wayne Haroldson, matron of honor, chose a gold and white dress, with gold sprigged corsage to match. Dennis Fife was best man. Others in the reception line were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther L. Fife, and Mrs. E. M. Bair, the groom's mother. The ladies chose dark afternoon frocks, with red rosebud corsages.

Presiding at the gift tables were Miss Lola Pitkin of Caldwell, Betty Fife, Dean Irving and Philis Bair. The girls wore pastel shade gowns. A bride's white cake and a groom's dark fruit cake, each four-tier, with bride and groom in miniature atop, were placed on a covering with silver wedding bells, pink roses and blue ribbons, and were made by the bride's mother and Mrs. Strasbough. Presiding at the refreshment tables were Mrs. Howard Bair, Mrs. Luther Fife and Mrs. E. M. Bair. Mrs. D. O. Bybee furnished the prelude music on the electric solo-vox. Mrs. LaMont Fife, mistress of ceremonies, told a clever joke on each program participant as an introduction.

The program included: Comic reading, Miss DeRay Johnson of Caldwell; piano solos, Betty Fife, and songs, male trio, with guitar accompaniment, sung by the Peterson brothers and Mr. Wright. The remainder of the evening was spent in taking pictures, viewing the gifts and dancing.

Music was furnished by Pond's orchestra. Many out-of-town guests from Ontario, Adrian and Parma were present. Mrs. Bair, a graduate of the Nyssa high school, attended the Brigham Young university at Provo, Bair, an ex-serviceman, is formerly of Utah. The couple will make their home in Nyssa.

ADRIAN YOUTH WEDS
Miss Meta Gaskill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gaskill of Ontario, and Dudley Kurtz, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kurtz of Adrian, were united in marriage Monday evening by Rev. H. E. Moore, pastor of the Adrian Community church. The ceremony was performed in the home of the groom's great uncle, Dudley Stafford, who resides near Caldwell.

The bride wore a rose-colored dress and a corsage of white rosebuds. The attendants were Mrs. Lucille Wilson of Ontario, sister of the bride, and Merle Kurtz, brother of the groom.

Two large baskets of pink and white flowers framed the ceremonial picture, with white wedding bells and white streamers adding a touch of beauty.

Only immediate relatives and friends attended the ceremony. These included the bride's mother, her sister of Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kurtz and Joyce and Bob of Adrian, Mrs. Carrie McLaughlin, grandmother of the groom, two great aunts, Mrs. Sam Collins and Mrs. William Gohley, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kurtz of Caldwell, Jewell Wilson, Ronald Lane and Maurice Judd, college roommates of the groom.

After a five-day wedding trip to San Francisco the couple will be at home in Caldwell, where the groom is a student in the college of Idaho.

Abe Lincoln was born on February 12, 1809. Most of us who cry about our lack of opportunities have already ignored more opportunities than Honest Abe ever had. His schooling was a catch-as-catch-can affair... but what he caught he held onto. He grew up in poverty in the backwoods of the United States. Yet, in spite of his handicaps, he was able to say "With malice toward none, with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right." Perhaps the greatest lesson we can draw from Abe Lincoln on the anniversary of his birth is tolerance for each other's shortcomings.

A Baltimore man who failed to return a library book titled, "Practical Course in Modern Locksmithing," was found in jail on a burglary charge. Guess the course wasn't too practical. You'll find it extremely practical to have the engine of your car Tuned-Up at regular intervals!
