

ADRIAN MOTHER AND DAUGHTER TEA HELD

ADRIAN, April 22—Mr. James McGinnis has been very ill at his home the past week. The annual Mother-Daughter tea was given by the Girls league Saturday, April 7 in the Adrian gymnasium for all the mothers. Cookies and punch were served. Punch was poured by Mrs. Earl Crocker and Mrs. Lambert Dierking. Rev. and Mrs. Pitcher were at Cottage Grove, Oregon last week to attend a relative's funeral. The annual junior-senior prom was held at the Adrian high school Friday, April 16. The prom was given by the junior class. The theme was "Over the Rainbow", with about 85 attending the dinner and dancing. Miss Jean Dierking went with Bob Kurtz and Joyce Kurtz to Caldwell to visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Landau and Roy Meham were dinner guests at Shirley Smith's home Wednesday evening. The Boy Scouts went on an overnight camping party to Lesley gulch Saturday and Sunday. George De Haven took a truckload of food and tents to Leslie gulch for the boys. Mrs. Korman and daughter, Kristine, Mrs. Webb and daughter, Joan, and Mrs. Brown were in Nampa for dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Charley West and Wales, represented by a ladies chorus, under the direction of Mrs. John Schenk, sang "Now The Day is Over". Scotland was depicted by the "special interest group", with dances under the direction of W. J. Beas. Ireland was represented by Mrs. John Schenk, singing "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling". Mr. Sanders did the Irish jig. Holland was represented by the builders (Bee girls) under the direction of Mrs. S. P. Bybee. After singing "The Little Dutch Mill", they danced in their wooden shoes, while the mill went 'round and 'round. Garry Bybee was the voice behind the old fashioned clock. Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Stam assisted the group by singing in Dutch, "A Cottage by the Sea". Mexico was presented by Miss Nola Drown, who sang "Cielito Lindo". A ladies chorus from the Gleaner class sang "Serenade of the Beils". Italy was represented by Miss Loa Mitchell, who sang "Santa Lucia". Spain was featured in a tango dance by Don and Betty Fife, assisted by four other dances with castanets and tamborines. Hawaii was represented by the junior girls under the direction of Mrs. Arvilla Sanders, teacher. Leon Child, missionary from Hawaii, greeted the audience in that native tongue. He also sang Hawaiian songs, assisted by his sister, Mrs. Elwood Plinders, on the guitar. Mrs. Roland Maw, guest artist, taught the girls the hula. The scent was beautiful with palm trees and yellow moon. Among sagebrush and saddles, the cowboys, senior scouts, under the direction of Charles Peterson, sang several songs. A trio of guest artists, James Peterson, his brother, Charles, and Cliff Wright, sang, "Nighttime in Nevada", with guitar accompaniment. The children in the audience received a thrill by seeing a real pinto shieland pony, mounted by Celia Carol Bybee, who sang "My Home's In Montana". Mrs. Lowell Russell, Indian princess of Boise, clad in a white leather native dress, with beads and fringe, and wearing a beaded headband with feathers in the back, sang several tribal songs, "The Indian Love Call" and "Nearer My God To Thee". J. B. Lewis, sailor, and LeRoy Bair, soldier, escorted Miss Lois Bybee, who was chosen by popular vote to be "Miss America", to the stage. Her crown and torch were of silver metallics. She wore a shell pink chiffon formal. The entire ensemble sang "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow".
