

BIBLE SCHOOL IS PLANNED AT OWYHEE

OWYHEE, May 13—Owyhee grade school won first place in the track meet of the union high school district No. 4 Thursday. In the afternoon they were also winners in a softball game with the Ridgeview school 18 to 13.

Rev. R. G. Chandler, union Sunday school missionary from Caldwell, visited the Owyhee Sunday school Sunday. Plans were completed for a Bible school to begin as soon as school is out. Rev. Stanley Cain, guest speaker, entertained the children with Bible magic. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler and sons, Donnie and Davis, and Rev. Cain were dinner guests of the Wallace Gregg family.

Mrs. Kenneth McDonald, who is recuperating from a major operation, and son, Butch, are spending the week with her father, Ray Fletcher, in Homedale.

Mr. Annie Gregg and Herschel Gregg and three children, Sally, Allen and David, were guests on Mother's day at the Jess Gregg home in Sunset valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Junquist and two sons, Dustin and Jon, of Anderson dam, were week-end guests in the S. D. Bigelow home.

The following pupils of the Owyhee school were perfect in the fourth county spelling test: Marcella Morris, Vivian Hoke, Charles Howard, Bonita Langlois, Fern Price, Bill Ward, Joan Crocker, Dale Haney, Maxine Kygar and Marvin Larson. Those receiving 94 to 98 were Richard Hite, Molly Connaughy, Roberta Moclitt, Mary Ellen Williams, Jimmy Connaughy, Ralph Hite and Gerald Reed.

In a recent national current events test the following pupils had scores above the median for their grade: Richard Hite, Molly Connaughy and Marcella Morris in the eighth grade and Roberta Moclitt, Mary Ellen Williams, Charles Howard, Fern Price and Carlton Morgan in the seventh grade.

S. D. Bigelow has accepted the position of sexton in the Owyhee cemetery for the summer.

Lynn Kygar is building a new cinder block house on his ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Hutchinson of Seneca and Lea and Harley Winter of Nyssa called Saturday evening in the Wilson Winter home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Powers and son, Dannie, of Martinez, California arrived Saturday for a visit with Mrs. Powers' brother, Charles Culbertson, and family.

Mrs. Nellie Newbill is spending several days with Mrs. Ellis Walters.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Skinner left Wednesday for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Betty White, in Los Angeles. They also plan on visits in Arizona and states in that area.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Walters were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fox of Nyssa Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Patton, Jr., entertained at a Mother's day dinner for their mothers, Mrs. Russell Patton, Sr., and Mrs. Earl Crocker.

The occasion also marked the birthday anniversary of Mr. Patton, Sr., so he too was an honor guest. Others in the party were Earl Crocker and daughters, Jean and Joan, and son, Melvin, and Del and Paulette Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Patton were dinner guests of the Lou Piler family in Ontario Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner Peutz and daughter, Wanda, were dinner guests Sunday in the Glenn McGinnis home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Huber of Meridian were Sunday guests in the Werner Peutz home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Patton were guests at dinner Sunday in the A. T. Patterson home in Wilder.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Householder were among a group who were entertained at a Mother's day dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick West of Sunset valley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Glenn entertained at dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith and their daughter, Mrs. Carol Matthews of Owyhee corner and Mrs. Mildred Phillips and Miss Betty Jo Williams of Nyssa.

Dale Glenn was a business visitor in Boise Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schweizer report that their son-in-law, Barr Doolittle, formerly an Owyhee resident, has been transferred to a position as field engineer of a dam being built at Dickinson, North Dakota. Mr. and Mrs. Doolittle and two children have recently been living in Ephrata, Washington.

Mrs. Bob Rice, with Mrs. Donald Hite as assistant, will entertain the Owyhee Community club May 29 at the Rice home at Owyhee corner.

David Lewis of Wilder spent from Friday until Sunday as a guest in the T. H. Brewer home.

David Lewis of Wilder spent from Friday until Sunday as a guest in the T. H. Brewer home.

MAGICIAN GIVES SHOW AT SCHOOL

BIG BEND, May 13—Rev. Stanley Cain, a magician, accompanied by Rev. D. G. Chandler, gave performances for the pupils of the Wade school Friday afternoon, for the members and guests of the Wade P. T. A. at the Hutchinson home and at the Big Bend school in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Packwood were Saturday visitors in Nampa, where Mr. Packwood consulted a physician.

George Eifers, Joe and Benny Willy, Wayne Roberts and Raymond Stradley attended a Boy Scout court of honor Monday evening in the high school auditorium. Benny was awarded a second class certificate and George and Joe were awarded their Life Scout certificates.

Last Thursday the Big Bend and Wade schools participated in the grade school track meet at Adrian. Big Bend earned 61 points and Wade earned 63 points. Owyhee led with 206 points, or 60 points more than its nearest competitor, Kingman Colony.

The Wade P. T. A. met Friday at the Hutchinson home with 15 members and five visitors present. Plans were formulated for the last-day-of-school picnic, to be held Sunday, May 23, at the Big Bend park. Stanley Cain of Wheaton, college entertained with Bible magic. Other numbers included songs by pupils of the lower room and a song, "Bells of St. Mary's" by Lorraine Vandewater. Refreshments were served by the hostess and assistant hostess, Mrs. Jack Steiner.
