HOBSON-KIMBALL NUPTIALS
HELD IN NAMP

Miss Dorothy Hobson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hobson, and Kendrick C. Kimball, son of Mrs. Louise Kimball of Oakland, California, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony at the College Church of the Nazarene in Nampa Tuesday evening, June 15, with white stephanotis. Ushers were Madison Urwin of Nampa and J. H. Hobson of Nyssa. Wearing gowns of rayon organdy and lace and patterned the same as the brides, were the attendants, Mrs. Homer Brewer in pink, and Mrs. J. A. Langley in blue. Both net hats of the bride wore dainty veils to match their gowns, and carried nosegays of mixed flowers encircling gardenias.

Serving as best man was A. E. McKee of Ontario. The bride's mother, Mrs. Hobson, in a teal green crepe afternoon dress and a white straw hat, wore a corsage of pink roses and gardenias. Mrs. Kimball, in a soft pink crepe frock and a black hat, wore a gardenia and carnation corsage.

The candles were lighted by Helen Tucker of Ontario and Bernita Tucker of Nyssa. The flower girl, Barbara Brewer, dressed in a long white gown to match the bride, scattered rose petals from the flower basket carried by Keith Langley.

For the service, the chapel was decorated with a profusion of flowers. Flanking the altar were candelabra and huge baskets of Euter dea daisies, Queen Anne's lace, peonies, baby's breath, delphinium and roses. Mrs. Jeanne Vail of Nampa, vocalist, sang "When Song is Sweet," "Oh Promise Me" and also the "Prayer Hymn," with Miss Elaine Carlson of Nampa accompanying at the organ, and supplying background music for the ceremony.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Morrison hall. Over 100 guests were present. The four-tiered wedding cake, which was topped with pink rosebuds, was cut by Mrs. J. A. Langley. Mrs. Ted Lyons of Los Angeles, former roommate in training of the bride, presided at the crystal punch bowl which was very attractive with a pink rose corsage centered in a large floating block of ice.

In charge of the serving, were Mrs. Roy Yates of Nampa, and Mrs. William Gregg, who were assisted by several hospitable friends. Mrs. Joe Hobson of Ontario was in charge of the guest book. Floral arrangements for both the church and reception hall were under the supervision of Mrs. George Schweitzer.

The couple planned a wedding trip to Crater Lake. The bride's going-away outfit was a black and white silk crepe frock with a black peplum adorned with the bridal orchid, and a white off-the-face straw hat trimmed with white satin ribbon in the back.

Mrs. K. C. Kimball, mother of the groom, left Tuesday evening by bus for a visit with relatives in the east.

The newlyweds will be at home in Oakland, California by the first of July. Mr. Kimball, a graduate of the University of California, is employed as chemist with the department of agriculture in San Francisco.

Mrs. Kimball, a graduate of Northwest Nazarene college, with post-graduate work in public health at the University of Washington, was employed by the health department of Santa Barbara county in California.
