

SUNDAY

NYSSA COUPLE WED

Miss Bernice Bowen and LaVern Cleaver were united in marriage in the Methodist church in Nyssa Sunday, June 20, with Rev. Don S. Campbell officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, John E. Bowen, wore a gown of white moire tulle with a finger-tip veil, and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations surrounded by sweetpeas.

Miss Dorothy Settles, attending the bride as matron of honor, wore a pale pink gown and carried a small colonial bouquet to match the bride's bouquet. Both mothers wore afternoon dresses of blue with white accessories.

Alvin Cleaver served as groom's man for his brother, Leonard Cleaver and Jack Bowen ushered.

Miss Marjorie Bishop sang "By the Waterfall" and Mrs. Campbell played the wedding march.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the church. A three-tier wedding cake, decorated with pink sweetpeas, was served.

George Chambers, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Lyle Fulmer, poured the punch. Mrs. Magnus Ekanger, cousin of the groom, and Mrs. Sidney Burdick served the cake.

Miss Lois Bybee and Miss Ruth Toombs displayed the many beautiful gifts and Miss Janie Parr handled the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of the Nyssa high school with the class of 1948. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cleaver, was graduated from Nyssa high school in 1947.

The couple are at home on the Cleaver ranch following a honeymoon trip through Nevada and Idaho.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. July 4th reminds us it wasn't so long ago that our country was just a small group of 13 colonies that didn't like to be pushed around. As to the size and power of the country today, leave that to the holiday orators. They'll give it to you with all the trimmings and gestures. You know, the Declaration of Independence was approved by the colonial delegates on July 4th, but they didn't sign it until August 2. Still, the day we celebrate doesn't matter, because it's good all year 'round. So pay your respects to Uncle Sam on his birthday—and let's see to it that he has many more of them.

"A fool and his money," says Ron Whitaker, "is a good fellow to have around".

Shirley Temple's studio reported she has just discovered her first grey hair. That's an announcement that makes us all feel a few years older.
