NEGRO BASEBALL PLAYERS COMING
after seven years of playing with the Memphis Red Sox, he is one of the clubs leading hitters and fielders.
Lee Moody, utility man, has been with the Monarchs for six years and will be seen playing almost all positions.
Merle Porter, first base, is considered one of the most promising young players in negro baseball.
Porter is the smallest man on the team but is a powerful hitter and an outstanding fielder. His partner in the double play combination on short is Ed Willis, a six foot three fellow, who can reach over 10 feet. These two men have a daughter for the parcel you both sent to Maureen. It was lovely. It is the first time I have seen Maureen shed tears of joy, she said 'mom, I'm going to cry, and she did. You see it was the loveliest present she had ever had. I have four children and we live in a small four roomed cottage. My husband comes from Galway, Ireland. We are a very happy family, but I am afraid we are not endowed with many of the world's goods, but I never mind as long as the children keep well.

THANKS EXPRESSED BY ENGLISH WOMAN
Mrs. Howard Hatch of Adrian has received a letter from Mrs. T. M. Kyne of England thanking her for a gift package that she sent to the Kyne family.
The letter reads as follows:
Dear Mrs. Hatch,
"I do hope you don't mind me writing to you, but I just had to write to thank you and your fine double play combination. The catching department is handled by Nat Peoples and Earl Wright. Peoples, who also plays outfield, is a hard hitter with 14 home runs to his credit in the games he has played this season.

The outfield includes Dan Wilson in center with Bell and Moody on each side, Wilson a veteran of 10 years on the diamond, is the fastest man on the team. He is one of the finest hitters in baseball.
The pitching staff consists of six pitchers, all have several years of experience in baseball. Willie Hutchinson, who appeared with the Monarchs before the war in this territory, has spent the last five years playing baseball in Mexico league. Bill Williams, a speed-ball pitcher, is over six-two and tips the scales at 220, one of the club's best.

Mickey Stubblefield, Jose Alexander, Lefty Buckner and Leonard Johnson are the remaining pitchers.

Merle Porter, first base, is considered one of the most promising young players in negro baseball. Porter is the smallest man on the team but is a powerful hitter and an outstanding fielder. His partner in the double play combination on short is Ed Willis, a six foot three fellow, who can reach over 10 feet. These two men have a
