LUCILLE SALLEE BRIDE OF FRANK MORGAN

At a 4 o'clock ceremony performed Sunday afternoon at the St. Paul's Episcopal parish house, Miss Lucille Sallee and Frank Theodore Morgan were united in marriage by the Rev. C. L. Callahan. The parish house was attractively decorated with tall baskets of variegated gladioli with white tapers lighted on the altar.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white nylon marquisette with square neckline and long sleeves, modeled with a deeply snarled skirt flaring into a full court train. The finger-tip veil was held by a Juliette cap of tiny seed pearls. The bride carried a shower bouquet of gladioli and Ruybrum lilies. The bride's gown was one formerly worn by her sister, Mrs. Gene Stunz at her wedding.

The bride was attended by Mrs. George Bauer of Corvallis, as matron of honor, and Miss Mardi Sallee as bridesmaid. Mrs. Bauer wore a gown of blue net and Miss Sallee a pastel green marquisette. Both attendants carried mixed gladioli nosegays. Mr. Morgan was attended by Pierre Barnett of Portland. Clayton Morgan and Norbert Sarazin served as ushers. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Hilda Tensen.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home and garden of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sallee. The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Ray Larson and ice cream and punch were served by Mrs. George Sallee, Mrs. Joe Sutherland and Mrs. A. O. Sheldon. Assisting with the serving were Miss Barbara Brown, Miss Margaret Sarazin, Miss Marian Brown and Miss Twila Sallee.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sallee wore a gown of navy crepe with a gardenia corsage and Mrs. Morgan wore a gray crepe with gladioli and gardenia corsage. The bride is a graduate of Oregon State college, where she majored in home economics and was affiliated with the Gamma Phi Beta sorority. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Morgan, is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where he was a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity. During the war, Mr. Morgan served as a captain in the army air forces in the Aleutians.

After a honeymoon spent on the Oregon coast and in San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will be at home in Nyssa.

About 75 guests were present at the wedding and reception, including the following out-of-town guests: Mrs. A. O. Sheldon of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Louise Brandt of Boise, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Edholm and daughters of Gooding and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Morgan of Portland.

SPECIAL GIVEN
A large gathering of friends enjoyed a bridal shower Friday afternoon at the M. L. Judd home in Newell Heights, in honor of Miss Nadeen Wilson of Ontario, former Kingman Colony resident. Joint hostesses were Miss Ellen Judd and Mrs. Donald Brewer who entertained their guests in the living room at the Judd home. A lovely decorated table held a load of beautiful and useful gifts, which the bride-to-be opened at the close of a program of games. A Japanese umbrella just above the table carried out the shower motif as did the little umbrella favors. A large pink and white cake, decorated to carry out the bridal thought, was served with punch.

After a number of switches that had the nation's young men wondering what might come next, the new armed service draft seems to be leveling out, like oil on water. A few 18-year-olds are being allowed to sign up for one year hitch, plus service in the reserves when they return. This keeps them out of the 21 month hitch which draftees will draw. Registrations for the draft will begin August 30, but nobody will get the high sign before September 22. An age before beauty approach will make 25-year-olds most vulnerable, but deferments will be as liberal as a politician's promises. This is final unless it's changed!
