

NORCOTT-FERGUSON NUPTIALS HELD

Before an alter arrangement of candelabra with white tapers and tall baskets of ivory chrysanthemums and white gladiolas, Merry Louise Norcott and Weldon W. Ferguson were united in marriage, Saturday, October 16 at the Episcopal parish hall. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. L. Callahan. Preceding the ceremony Miss Shirley Hibbard of Imbler, sang, "Because." The wedding marches were played by Mrs. Hilda Tensen.

Gene Stunz, who wore a gown of dark delphinium blue, and Phyllis Galloway, who wore a gown of light delphinium blue. Both carried bouquets of baby chrysanthemums in rose and ivory tied with rainbow satin ribbon. The groom was attended by George Smiley of Milton. Calvin Ferguson of Walla Walla and Ocean Wells served as ushers. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Galloway home, which was attractive with tall baskets of chrysanthemums and gladiolas. The three tiered ivory satin gown with full train wedding cake was served by Mrs. and necktie embroidered with G. H. Kenaston, of San Bernardino. Her finger-tips veil dino, aunt of the bride, Mrs. H. was caught in a halo tiara of seed pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of ivory roses and stephanotis. Mrs. A. H. Boydell and Mrs. Artie Robertson assisted with the serving. Miss Phyllis Galloway had charge of the guest book.

Among the out-of-town guests were the great grandmother and grandfather of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Conover of Watsburg, Washington, the grand parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Humphreys of Yakima; Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson of Milton and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Welby of Florence. For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Jaloway, wore a dull grey crepe with black accessories. Mrs. Ferguson wore a royal blue crepe with brown accessories. Both wore ornate corages. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson attended the Eastern Oregon College of Education at La Grande. Following a wedding trip to Canada, the couple will make their home in Walla Walla.

NEWS VIEWS

By Lew Herriman

Well, the chips are down, the promises are all promised, and the sound and fury of campaign oratory show signs of drying up. The time has come to make a decision that carries a four year contract. That means we ought to be sure of what we want... and make our marks accordingly. We've had a lot of tense years since the time G. Washington took over our top job... but the four ahead of us could be the most important of all. The President of the U. S. is going to be the key man in the fate of the world. That puts a big responsibility on him... and on you and me. Let's all do our share by getting to the polls and voting! A British scientist has reported the case of a man who was cured of baldness by moving out of his mother-in-law's house. Apparently she got in his hair.
