FAREWELL DINNER HELD
Rev. and Mrs. George Whipple were honor guests at a dinner held Friday night in the home economics room at the high school. Following a roast chicken dinner served to 105 guests at tables decorated in keeping with the Thanksgiving season, a program was presented with Mrs. Roy Barnes acting as toastmistress. The junior choir sang a number that had been taught the group by Rev. Whipple as former director of the choir. The remainder of the program was given as follows: "In the Garden", Thelma and Bonnie Mullins; trio number, Mrs. John Stafford, Mrs. Chet Mosier and Mrs. Orlan Moyes; short talks, E. H. Strickland and John Quigley; solo, "My Task", Mrs. Chet Mosier and a poem, "It Isn't the Church, It's You", read by Mrs. Barnes.

Webb Pennie, chairman of the elders of the church, presented gifts to Rev. and Mrs. Whipple. Mrs. Roy Bibbey was chairman of the table and decorations committee.

JOB'S DAUGHTER INITIATE
Lola Wilson, Phyllis Cheldelin and Keitha Strassburg were initiated into the Job's Daughter at an impressive ceremony held last Thursday evening at the Masonic hall.

A program was presented with the following numbers: "The Lark," piano solo by Donna Cheldelin; a sextett, composed of Betty Ann Boenig, Jane Parr, Doris Rigney, Joanne Garrison, Loretta Russell and Janice Frost, "Come Holy Spirit," and a vocal solo by Doris Rigney.

The following officers were elected: Margaret Diven, queen; Phyllis Galloway, senior princess; Neva Mallay, junior princess; Viva Mary Leseburg, guide; and Betty Winchell, marshal.

The members of the Job's Daughter made plans for the entertainment for their parents and the members of the Eastern Star and Masons, at a program of skits and music to be presented in December. The meeting was closed with a social hour and refreshments served by Joanne Garrison, Bonnie Kressley, Patricia Grunke and Glenda Moss.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED
Dick Herriman observed his 13 birthday last Thursday evening when he was guest of honor at a dinner given at his home. Places were laid for six guests, who enjoyed a theater party following the dinner.

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY
Colleen Bybee was honored on her 15th birthday with a party given last Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Bybee. The 16 guests enjoyed an evening of bunco, with prizes going to Nani Child and Roger Skeen. Consolation prizes went to Carlie Kessler and Jimmy Skeen. The decorations were in keeping with the Thanksgiving season. One birthday cake was decorated with a miniature turkey, and the other with candles representing pilgrims. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. The honor guest received many gifts.

On Sunday Mrs. Vibert Kessler entertained in observance of Colleen's birthday, with the members of the S. P. Bybee and Kessler families as guests.

CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS
The Stitching 4-H club met last Friday afternoon at the home of the leader, Mrs. Ron Whitaker. The afternoon was spent in working on projects. New officers elected for the club are Carol Whitaker, president; Caroline Vaughan, vice president; Bonnie Mullins, secretary; Barbara Bolitho, reporter and Kristin Rinehart, social chairman.

FAMILY DINNER SERVED
A family Thanksgiving dinner was observed early this week by the Ostrom families when they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Boe of Boise last Sunday. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Ostrom, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ostrom and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Halmer Ostrom.

GIRLS MEET
The Thimble Bells 4-H club held a meeting at the home of Mrs. C. M. Pounds November 19. After the regular meeting, Brenda Myers and Connie Ball gave a demonstration on milking a corner. Twila and Whitt Clifton played a guitar duet. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Pounds.

CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS
Officers of the Chatterbox club were elected at the November meeting held at the home of Mrs. James Stephen. The new officers are Mrs. Fern Runcorn, president; Mrs. George Knowles, vice president; Mrs. Edward Topliff, secretary; Mrs. Wallace Gregg, treasurer; Mrs. Marion Cheldelin, song leader; Mrs. Clifford Nielson, welfare chairman and Mrs. James Stephen, program chairman.

HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB
Mrs. Bernard Frost was hostess to the members of her Tuesday evening bridge club last week. High score was held by Mrs. Henry Hartley, and second high by Mrs. J. J. Sarazin. Mrs. Frost invited Mrs. Tom Burningham, Mrs. George Mitchell and Mrs. Tom Eldridge to play with the group.

ALTER SOCIETY MEETS
The St. Anne's Alter society met at the home of Mrs. William Wahlert last Thursday evening. Articles for the bazaar were contributed by the members, and were prepared for the sale to be held November 27 at the Nyssa Insurance company office. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the evening. The next meeting will be held at the church, December 16.

HONORED ON ANNIVERSARY
Friends and neighbors helped Mr. and Mrs. Carl Seburn celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Saturday evening, November 20 at their home at Nyssa heights.

A potluck supper was served buffet style. Mr. and Mrs. Seburn furnished an elaborate three-tier white cake, which was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

After supper, the evening was spent in playing pinochle. Winners at cards were James Malloy high for men and Mrs. Frank Cahill high for women; I. B. Allen low for men and Mrs. Drew Cunningham low for ladies, and Harold Kurtz and Mrs. Frank Cahill, pinochle. Mr. and Mrs. Seburn were presented with a silver lace basket. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. Cunningham of Vale.
