QUEEN CROWNED

Deane Irving, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Irving was crowned queen of the Green and Gold ball of the second ward last Friday evening at the school gymnasium. The theme of this year's ball, "Stardust" was effectively carried out in all the decorations. A blue overhead was dotted with silver stars. Blue was also used for the background of the stage that was centered with the queen's throne, backed by a large lighted half moon. Two large silver stars on either side of the moon provided appropriate backgrounds for the attendants.

In the coronation procession was Larry Kessler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vibert Kessler, as crown bearer. The queen, Deane Irving, wore a long pale blue gown with a gold sash trimmed with silver stars. The train bearers were Deane Lee Bowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bowers, and Gail Plinders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Plinders. The two tiny attendants wore gold bodiced dresses with green skirts.

Miss Irving's attendants were Lucille Mitchell, escorted by Cecil Blair and Marjorie Olson, escorted by Ray Bigbee.

Bishop Arvil Child officiated at the coronation ceremony, placing the crown of gold satin with green sequin moons on the head of the queen, who was escorted by Lynn Swenson. Following the crowning ceremony "Stardust" was sung by Glen Burgess.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Peterson, La Priel Jensen and Mr. Gifford performed in the "Americana" dance. Queen Deane then left her throne to join in the dances of the evening. Music for the dance was provided by Pond's orchestra.

Deane Irving ruled as queen of the Gold and Green ball sponsored by the M. I. A. of the second L. D. S. ward of Nyssa last Friday.

The decorations for the ball were under the direction of the second ward M. I. A. officers and auxiliaries, with O. P. Williams president.

NEWS VIEWS

By Lew Herriman

The word from Oslo, Norway is that the Nobel Prize Committee has decided not to award a Nobel Peace Prize for 1948. With affairs in China, India, Palestine, Central America and Berlin having all the earmarks of a lighted fuse, the Committee is apparently a little nervous about handing out financial lollipops for peace promotion. They're afraid their letters will come back marked "Opened with Mistake"! Last year, the award amounted to about $11,000. Peace is a bargain at that price...but war is no bargain at any price. Let's hope the Nobel Committee has plenty of chances to spend its money in 1949.

A Chicago thief stole two typewriters from a Greek Orthodox Church. However, the loot will be "all Greek" to him...they're equipped with Greek letters! We're "equipped" to give you the best service possible at all times. With the "Christmas Rush" so near, you'll appreciate our extra efforts at promptness and courtesy.
