NEWS VIEWS

With indications pointing to this being the biggest Christmas season on the record, our town has been a mighty gay and exciting place during the past few weeks. There are people who say that Christmas is for the children, but there's no doubt we all feel a lift in our spirits at this time of year. The bright decorations, the trees with their brilliant dazle of colored ornaments and sparkling tinsel, the traditional carols, the mysterious packages... all add to the festive air. But even more important is what the season does to us in the way of thinking of others. Even in our common contacts as we hurry about town on our hundreds of errands there is a greater consideration and courtesy. We are all caught in the magic of the time. And that is the true spirit of Christmas that lies behind the lights and tinsel. It is the giving of ourselves to the idea of "Peace on earth, goodwill toward men". And this feeling is the greatest gift any of us can give or receive throughout the Yuletide season. We'd like to extend our Christmas Greeting to you and your family, and hope the time may come when all the world will enjoy the blessings which we have to such a full degree in this community... for the real spirit of Christmas is the spirit of full and lasting peace.
