HONORED AT SHOWER

Mrs. R. V. Wilson was honor guest at two parties last week. On Tuesday evening the wives of the agricultural teachers, and veterans instructors for Malheur county, arranged a party for Mrs. Wilson. The guests arrived at the Wilson home with a pot-luck supper. Following the supper, the evening was spent informally, and a gift was presented to the honor guest by the group.

On Thursday evening, Mrs. Henry Hartley and Mrs. Howard Lovejoy entertained at a pink and blue shower in honor of Mrs. Wilson at the Hartley home. Following dessert four tables of pinocle were in play, with prizes going to Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. W. H. Reedy.

Mrs. Wilson received a number of lovely gifts from those present.

HONORED AT PARTY

Mary Bell Kinkade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dixie Kinkade, was honored Friday when 30 of her friends gathered at the home of Mrs. D. O. Bybee on the occasion of Mary's first birthday party. Games were played indoors and on the lawn. The table was decorated with a large mirror, filled with Easter decorations, with yellow and orange streamers from the center, light to each corner of the table. Little individual birthday cakes with candles, were presented to each guest. Mary, who is 11 years old received many lovely gifts.

RECEPTION IS HELD

Two hundred guests attended a reception given in the L. D. S. church in Nyssa last Friday night for Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stoker. The bride, dressed in white with a red rosebud corsage, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ballantyne. Mr. Stoker is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stoker.

Willard Bishop announced the entertainment numbers, "Oh Promise Me" and "How Deep Is the Ocean", vocal solos by Miss Marjorie Bishop, and two readings, "Noah's Ark" and "The Second Best Spitter in Town", by Mrs. Jean Stoker.

Mrs. Lynda Stoker was in charge of the guest book. Assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. Bender and Mrs. Glenn Salter. Music was furnished by Cappy's orchestra of Vale.

Among the guests were the bridegroom's grandparents, from Ogden and several friends and relatives from Burley, Idaho.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED
Mr. and Mrs. David E. Mitchell announced the engagement of their daughter, Beth, to Joe J. Olsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Olsen of Portland. Both are attending the University of Oregon where Miss Mitchell is affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha, of which she is president. Mr. Olsen is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. They plan to be married in June.

MONDAY CLUB MEETS
Mrs. Houston Wilson was hostess to the members of her Monday afternoon bridge club at her home this week. High score was held by Mrs. Ed. Kneitel and low score by Mrs. Gene Stutz. Guest players were Mrs. Dwight Wyckoff, Mrs. Frank Cranney and Mrs. Edward Boydell.

HOSTESS AT SHOWER
Mrs. Orin Sumner was a recent hostess at a pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. William Wahlert. Cake and coffee were served at tables centered with lighted tapers. Following the presentation of gifts to the honor guests, the group attended a theater party.

CLUB HOLDS MEET
The Past presidents club of the American Legion auxiliary met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. A. L. Heide. Refreshments were served by the hostess following the social hour.

PARTY HELD FOR TEACHERS
The second ward Mutuals gave a party Wednesday evening in honor of all their teachers in the organization, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jensen. Mrs. Nell Bair is president of the young ladies and O. P. Williams is superintendent of the young men. This brings to a close the past season's activities of recreation in drama and dancing and lessons.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY MEETS
The April meeting of the Malheur Memorial Hospital auxiliary was held Monday afternoon at the parish hall. The meeting opened with a short musical program. Philip Woodard and Lynn Ray played an instrumental duet, "Pomp and Circumstance", accompanied by Carlene Jones. Annette Campbell played a piano solo "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life".

The opening thought for the day, was read by Mrs. J. J. Sarazin, who gave a poem found at Clifton's eating house in San Francisco.

During the business meeting, Mrs. La Mont Pife announced plans for the talent show to be held May 1 at the Nyssa theater. Mrs. Sarazin presented $121.91 from the St. Paul's Episcopal guild that had been cleared from serving the Lion's club banquet. This brought the balance of the organization to $1085.76.

Dr. Fred Graber, county health doctor, spoke to the group on the proposed program of the health department. He spoke of the extensive immunization program, and pre-school health examinations that would be carried on by the department. Dr. Graber stressed the fact that the work of the county health department would in no way conflict with that of the private physician, as examinations would be done by the county health doctor in clinics. Dr. Graber mentioned that in the Hoover economy plan, that public health was the one field where economy was not recommended.

Mrs. Carlos Buchner gave an interesting and informative report of the national hospital auxiliary convention for 1949. She presented ideas that could widen the scope of the work of the local hospital auxiliary.

Mrs. Roscoe Smith of Walla Walla, spoke to the group on alcoholism. Mrs. Smith is a representative of the Research Foundation for Alcoholism in the state of Washington.

JONES-DIDERICKSON

Miss Elaine Jones and Homer Diderickson, both of Caldwell, were united in marriage in an 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony, April 23 at the Adrian United Presbyterian church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Moore before an altar decorated with white flowers and large baskets of white snapdragons and pink carnations. Preceding the ceremony the candles were lighted by Betty Jones, sister of the bride, and Mrs. James Chadd, sister of the groom, who wore pastel gowns of pink and green, and gardenia wristlets.

Mrs. A. J. Odmark of Portland, cousin of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" preceding the ceremony, accompanied by Miss Helen Jane Garmen, who also played the wedding marches. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of ivory slipper satin, made with tight fitting bodice, long sleeves and full train. The fingertip veil was caught in a wreath of orange blossoms. Pink rosebuds fell from long streamers from the white Bible, carried by the bride. Attendants for the bride were Mrs. James Robb as matron of honor, and Mrs. Eddie Sharp, and Mrs. Leo Kellar, who wore gowns in pastel pink, blue and yellow, and carried nosegays of sweet-peas and white carnations.

Mary Ann Jones, sister of the bride, and Carlene Diderickson, sister of the groom, were flower girls. They wore long, pink lace trimmed dresses.

The groom was attended by Bob Eaton of Notus, and Donald Jones and James Chadd.

Following the ceremony 160 friends and relatives attended the reception held in the church parlors. After the five-tiered wedding cake had been cut by the bride and groom, the cake was served by Mrs. Cleaver. Mrs. Fred Jones of Gresham, and Mrs. James Chadd presided at the tea table. Assisting with the serving were Darlene Smith, Loretta Van de Water,

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Chaney of the Big Bend community have announced the engagement of their daughter, Bernice, to Harry Hultgren, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hultgren of Boise. Miss Chaney is a sophomore at the College of Idaho. Her fiancé is a junior pre-medic student there.

Phyllis Eastman and Betty Jones. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones, is a graduate of the Adrian high school and is employed at the First National bank of Caldwell. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Diderickson, formerly of Adrian, and is employed by the Home dairy at Caldwell. Following the wedding trip through Utah and California, the couple will be at home at 811 Belmont in Caldwell.

With spring heading full tilt into summer, vacation sports are ballyhooing their charms in a way that makes the Garden of Eden sound like a back alley. The magazines and newspapers are popping with ideas for you to drop your pick and dash off by air, sea or land to Bermuda, Canada, Catalina, Norway, Mexico, Alaska, Death Valley, Maine, South America, Miami and a host of other places. You feel like a cad if you don't at least write for their beautiful free literature. So listen carefully to the little woman before you say "Yes" in the next few weeks. She may be choosing her summer vacation. A hen owned by a Memphis woman laid an egg that stands on end. That's mighty square of the cackler. Her work certainly stands on its own merits. For a square deal in car repairs and service, you'll find that you'll get quality work that stands on its own merits at HERRIMAN MOTOR CO. When the electrical system in your car falls, your car is as dead as it now, and let our ignition and electrical experts check your firing for loose connections, frayed wires, or short circuits.
