ROBERT PHARAOH MAKES HIGH GRADE IN NAVAL SCHOOL

The United States navy announced this week that Robert Francis Pharaoh, hospital apprentice, has graduated as honor man from the U. S. navy hospital corps training center, San Diego.

Pharaoh, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pharaoh of Nyssa, enlisted in the navy October 6, 1948 under the high school graduate training program and upon completion of his recruit training period was sent immediately to the navy hospital corps school at San Diego to attend school.

Pharaoh graduated as honor man with a mark of 98.4 in a class of 60 men. He will be assigned to one of the many navel hospitals of hospital ships to apply the skill gained through the school.

Don M. Graham, GM 1c, USNR, announced that young men interested in two openings in the navy should contact him for particulars.

YOUTHS ARE MAKING MARINES PROGRESS

Pfc. Lawrence Graham, LaVern Haney and Fred Alexander of Nyssa are now stationed in southern California, according to information received here.

The three marines, who enlisted early last summer, are attached to the first marine aircraft wing, fleet marine force. The El Toro base, located near Los Angeles, is rated as one of the most advanced air stations in the United States.

Graham, a Nyssa high school graduate, is working in Seron-12 aviation supply office. Haney, an aviation mechanic, is a member of VMF-N-542 night fighter squadron. Alexander, who formerly played in the Nyssa high school band, plays the baritone horn with the marine band in base headquarters squadron. Haney, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Haney, is expecting to go to Quantico, Virginia. He will attend a parachute riggers' school there.

The three Nyssa youths enlisted for a period of three years.

On Honor Roll—

Included on the honor roll for the winter term at Eastern Oregon College, which ended March 23 were Beth Chapin and Hisako Kido of Nyssa, who earned better than a 3.5 grade point average.
