SPEAKER SHOWS WORK IMPORTANCE

(Continued from Page 1) preparing to enter college, Dr. Reichart said "I don't know why people think a person is cut out for a certain job. If he has intelligence, he has intelligence in many fields. We try to work him into an area in which he is likely to succeed". Dr. Reichart described the various types of tests given at the college, including achievement, aptitude, personality and interest tests. "One of the most important things for the schools of the United States is this matter of counseling," the speaker said. "If we can work out the details, I think it should be done in high schools". Superintendent Henry H. Hartley introduced the commencement speaker and also presented the 10 students with the highest scholastic standings for the four years of high school. The high students were Yoko Okano, Deane Irving, Marian Grace Brown, Val Dee Child, Cliff Coleman, Bonnie Fife, Sat Koyano, Evelyn Long, Jane Parr, Jim Rigney, Lola Weeks and Betty Windchell. Mr. Hartley announced that Deane Irving was given a scholarship to Oregon State college. Janice Frost was awarded a scholarship given by the Eagles lodge to the Eastern Oregon College of Education. Jane Parr, who won distinction for her essay on nurse's training in a recent contest, was awarded a scholarship to the hospital at The Dalles and also a scholarship to the Eastern Oregon College of Education, which will be used in conjunction with each other. On behalf of the American Legion of Nyssa, Commander Henry Storm presented citizenship awards to Betty Wenchell and Clifford Coleman, who were selected by the faculty to receive the honor. In presenting the class, Principal Dennis W. Patch said "They have been a fine group to work with and have been above the average in that they have been able to do a good deal of thinking for themselves". Other numbers on the program were as follows: Prelude, "Rustucon Overture", by the high school band, directed by Lynn J. Lawrence; professional, "Pomp and Chivalry" by the band; invocation, Arvel L. Child, president of the Weiser stake of the L. D. S. church; school song, group of senior girls; violin duet, "LaGolondrina" by Seredell, Angela Peterson and Laura Schenk; presentation of diplomas by Emil A. Stunz, chairman of the school board, and recessional, "Triumphal March" by the high school band.

GET UP TO 1/3 MORE PORK FROM YOUR GRAIN

Many hog raisers are getting almost 1/3 more pork to sell from each cribful of grain by balancing it with Purina Hog Chow instead of a single-protein supplement like tankage, meat scrap or soybean meal. That means a lot more income. See for yourself the difference a good blended supplement will make...
