

WOMEN'S SOFTBALL TEAM ORGANIZED

SUNSET VALLEY, June 23—A women's softball team has been organized in the valley. The Farmers' Daughters, as they call themselves, are sponsored by the Oregon Trail Grange with George Cleaver as manager, and Willis Bertram assistant manager. The women have had two evenings of "work-up" practice and on Friday evening they chose sides, dividing the 18 members into teams. At present they are practicing at the Owyhee schoolground, but later when the grounds at the former Japanese camp is cleared, the group will play there. Anyone interested in women's softball is invited to attend practice Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening.
