AIR RESERVISTS OF NYSSA GATHER

The second scheduled meeting of the air force reserve squadron for this area was held Tuesday evening, June 28 at the Payette armory under the leadership of Col. W. F. Buchanan of Payette. The squadron is composed of training flights from Nyssa, Ontario, Vale, Payette, Weiser, and Emmett. Personnel for these units is composed of both officer and enlisted veterans of the United States air force. Under Title III, public law 810, passed by congress June 29, 1948, it is necessary for all air force veterans who desire to take advantage of the reserve forces retirement program to earn a minimum number of points by means of training activities. The reserve retirement bill states that prior to June 29, 1948, 50 points shall be credited for each 365 days of service in an active reserve component, other than active federal service. One point will be credited for each day of active federal service. Subsequent to June 28, 1948, points shall be credited on the basis of one point for each day of active federal service, 15 points for each year of active membership in the air reserve forces, one point for each authorized drill period or period of equivalent instruction, and one point for each rated three hours of work satisfactorily completed on AF extension courses. Not more than 60 points per year, including the 15 points credited per year for membership in an active reserve component, may be earned for inactive duty in a year. The July meeting of the Nyssa air force reserves flight will be held at 8 p. m., Friday, July 15, at Carl's Doll House. All air force veterans, either officer or enlisted are invited to attend this meeting and learn how they can become eligible to participate in
