IT'S EASIER TO GET AT BOISE PAYETTE

This Laying House
Is Typical of BETTER Farm
Buildings Which Mean
BETTER Farm Profits

Ask for Plan No. 1450
from the 4-Square
Farm Building Book
at your
Boise Payette Yard

Every Boise Payette farm building plan is the result of long-standing farm experience and tried, sound construction principles. That's why each is a BETTER farm building intended to create BETTER farm profits.

This shed-roof laying house is typical. Because of its narrow dimensions it occupies a minimum amount of ground. The windows under the eaves provide maximum light and the eaves louvers provide ventilation without draft—factors designed to scientifically protect health and increase productivity of flock.

SPECIFICATIONS:

Overall Dimensions . . . 16 ft. x 30 ft. Additional protection can be accomplished by installing 12-inch (Extensible in 20-foot units)
Capacity 80 to 100 birds galvanized rat guards or Balsam
Feed Room 16 ft. x 10 ft. Wool Sealed Insulation.

BETTER Farm Buildings for Every Purpose Are Easier to Get at . . .

IRON NERVED DAVE ARNOLD

The Circus of Thrills, that's the name of the show That's Alive with Death and alive it is, with breath-taking thrills and chills. Dave Arnold, death-defying stunt man, performs and completes (we hope!) the death defying, hair-raising Bus Jump! In a car he hurtles through space—to leap—a bus. The bus, the kind you and I see on the highway. Yes! that's right! Over the length of the BUS! Dave attempts this daring feat and comes out alive!!!

You'll see an array of daring stunts, such as the ice crash, a car rolled over, end over-end, or side over side and numerous other death-defying stunts performed by iron nerved men. Don't Miss It! Once Seen, Never Forgotten !!!
