TOMLINSON-WADDELL

In a garden ceremony performed Friday evening, August 19 at the home of her mother, Mrs. Cora Tomlinson, Miss Claudine Tomlinson became the bride of H. Richard Waddell of San Jose, California. The double ring ceremony took place before the outdoor fireplace banked with garden flowers with large baskets of gladiolas on either side. H. N. Waddell, father of the groom officiated.

The bride wore a gown of matelasse organdy with matching hat and mitts, and carried a cascade bouquet of orchids, gardenias and stephanotis. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the groom. The bride was attended by Miss Florence Rosnow of Boise, who wore a yellow organdy gown with matching hat and mitts and carried a nosegay of lavender gladiolas. Miss Charlotte Kay Waddell, sister of the groom, was flower girl.

The groom was attended by his brother Willard Waddell of Garibaldi, Oregon.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Tomlinson wore a navy bengberg crepe, and the groom's mother wore a gray jersey. Each wore a corsage of gardenias and carnations.

Music for the ceremony was by Miss Lynn Jones of Payette, who sang "Forever and Ever", accompanied by Mrs. Ed Carstens of Payette, and by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hannam who sang, "I Love You Truly".

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held with Mrs. Kernel Anderson of Twin Falls, Mrs. A. M. Tomlinson of Jerome, Miss Margaret Piggott of Boise and Mrs. Donald Jinks of Payette, assisting.

For her going away outfit, Mrs. Waddell wore a brown sharkskin suit with pink accessories.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will reside in San Jose, where Mr. Waddell is employed by the Century Electric company.

LAWN WEDDING HELD
Miss Bobbe Brower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brower, and Warren E. Lundy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Lundy, exchanged wedding vows Friday evening at a lovely double ring ceremony performed by L. D. S. Bishop Hubert D. Christensen on the lawn at the Brower home.

The bride was lovely in a white organdy gown, with tight-fitting bodice of imported lace. The skirt was hooped and the hemline caught at intervals with tiny pearl clips. Her pearl-studded coronet trimmed in tiny white satin beads was held in place by a finger tip veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses held together with satin ribbons. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and together they led the bridal party down the flower-covered aisle to the altar of white crepe paper roses and green tapers, with baskets of gardenias and gladiolas on either side. The matron of honor was Colleen Connor and the bridesmaid was Elma Degullea. The ring bearers were Terry Brower and Teddy Sherman.

The groom was attended by Robert Runcorn. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McBride sang a vocal duet, "You You You Are The One", accompanied by Mrs. D. O. Bybee, who also played the wedding marches and incidental music on her electric solo-vox. Mrs. Eldred Brower, cut the three-tiered wedding cake, which held an ornamental wreath of white for-get-me-nots, with a white bell in the center. Each layer was trimmed with rosebuds and pairs of little white doves. Mrs. Robert Runcorn served the punch. After the ceremony, the wedding party and guests went to the American legion hall in Nyssa, where a dance was held, with music by the Brown- ing orchestra of Vale.

Out-of-town guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Burton McBride of Pingree, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McBride and Mr. and Mrs. John King, all of Heyburn, Idaho; and Mrs. Elma Degullea of Heyburn.

A N. Y. psychologist advises women to marry a man with a paunch. This should cause any buttons remaining on the vests of the nation's plumper gentlemen to pop with pride. Explaining how the bulkier citizens have the bulge on the competition, the Doc says they're easier to get along with. They're interested in food and comfort... and that keeps them at home as happy as a cricket on the hearth. They're even more tolerant of in-laws. Unfortunately, the Doc warns that fat men are thunderous snorers. So it looks as though the ladies have a choice between peaceful days or quiet nights.
