CHURCH WEDDING HELD

At a wedding performed last Saturday morning in the St. Matthew's Episcopal church in Ontario, Miss Patricia Em Boyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chelsy E. Boyer, became the bride of John Staurt Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Marshall of Nyssa.

The double ring ceremony was performed before a background of autumn flowers and candlelight with the Rev. C. L. Callahan officiating.

Mrs. Dick Kneidl sang "Through the Years" and "Ave Mari" accompanied by Marvin Trigero, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a fingertip veil caught by a crown of seed pearls. The gown was made en train, with fitted bodice. Pointed lace inserts with seed pearl filagree outlined the neck and cuffed the wrist-length sleeves.

Attending the bride was Mrs. A. Dahlen of Eugene as matron of honor, and Miss Evangeline Howard as maid of honor. They wore matching gowns of forest green taffeta with wide gold sashes. The bridesmaids, Miss Doris Bryson and Miss Margaret Wickenden of Berkeley, California, wore gold taffeta gowns with forest green sashes. The attendants wore halo headdresses of rolled taffeta harmonizing with their gowns and carried nosegays of autumn flowers.

Linda and Karan Peterson, gowned in yellow taffeta and carrying small corsages, served as flower girls.

The groom was attended by Robert Schweizer of Nyssa and James Cook of Boise, Jefferson C. Boyer of Detroit, Billingley C. Boyer of Corvallis and Charles Beatie, Jr. of Portland served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Boyer wore a long gown of blue crepe with dusty pink accessories and a corsage of feathered carnations. Mrs. Marshall wore a gown of rose taupe and a corsage of tailsman roses.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, with Mrs. H. L. Peterson, Mrs. C. F. Trow and Mrs. Mae Boyer presiding at the coffee urns, and Miss Katherine Peterson and Mrs. L. J. Kinney serving punch. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Bert Hawkins, Mrs. Cammey Echanis, Mrs. James McNamee, Miss Lucy McKnight, Miss Shirley Walker, Mrs. Jefferson C. Boyer and Mrs. Margaret Barroetabena.

The bride is a graduate of Ontario high school and the University of Oregon, where she was affiliated with the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She has been employed at the local public welfare office.

The bridegroom attended Oregon State college and served overseas with the armed forces. He is employed in the Nyssa branch of the First National Bank of Portland.

For her going away outfit, Mrs. Marshall wore a navy blue suit with matching accessories and a pink top coat.

Following a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Ontario at the Cox apartments.

The wedding and reception was attended by two hundred guests. Those from out-of-town included Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Beatie of Carterville, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Beatie, Jr., of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson C. Boyer of Detroit, Oregon; Billingsley Beatie of Corvallis, Mrs. James McNamee of La Grande, Mrs. Francis Zimmerlan of Alturas, California, Mrs. Gertrude Jackson of Caldwell, Mrs. Mary Morse and Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Ward of Boise.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY HELD

Following a short business meeting, the ladies auxiliary of the F. O. E. held an old-fashioned Hallowe'en party last Tuesday evening in the Eagles hall under the direction of the entertainment committee, composed of Clara Phillips, Leda Ray, Jeanette Burningham and Orleen Keefer.

With all of the members in appropriate costumes, prizes were awarded to Edris Jones for first and Mildred Renstrom for second. Games were played, with everyone receiving favors. A special prize was awarded to Greta Broad for her ghost story. Refreshments were served. The auxiliary's next preschool clinic will be held Tuesday, November 8 in the Eagles hall. Any one desirous of sending children to the clinic may contact Mrs. Jake Fischer, who is in charge of the clinic. One of the Nyssa doctors will be in charge of the clinic. The physicians of Nyssa as well as several of the townspeople have given support to this program, which is sponsored free of charge to anyone who has children who will enter school next year.

MISFIT DANCE HELD

Miss Peggy Christensen, 13, of Fruitland, won first place at the misfit dance sponsored by the Nyssa L.D.S. girls committee Tuesday in the gymnasium. Peggy wore a baby nightie, with cap and bottle. The judges awarded second prize to Joanne Drown, who wore a fur coat, odd shoes, old hat and a veil with silver beads.

"Miss" Kent Bunn, with brilliant head hankie, dark dress and high heeled slippers won first for the boys, and Eldred Irving, dressed as a shiek, won second prize.

During intermission, which was preceded by a grand march, a floor show was presented as follows: Two selections, violin trio, composed of Noni Child, Angela Peterson and Laura Schenk, accompanied by Mary Lou Schenk; comic reading, "Martha's First Movies", Olive Beus; song and dance routine, Nannette Bybee and Phyllis Hadley, "Put Yer Shoes On, Lucy", and two comic readings, Cleo Flinders.

Mrs. Vivian Bair was in charge of decorations, which carried out the Hallowe'en motif, with pumpkins, corn stalks, skeletons, witches, bats and black and yellow streamers prominently displayed. Chairman Afton Mitchel and two counselors, Mrs. George Poulson and Mrs. Gladys Cooper, served pie ala mode, pop, candy and popcorn. Secretary Ruth Anderson had charge of the guessing cake table. Mrs. D. O. Bybee won the pineapple angelfood cake by guessing the item buried therein, a wishbone. The cake, made by Mrs. William Bolitho, was auctioned by Leo Child for $2.10 to Freddie Mitchell. Vella Dee Poulson won the prize for selling the most tickets, but turned it back into the building fund. Others assisting were Mrs. Bessie Bair, Mrs. Parley Fiek, Mrs. Glenn Peterson and Mrs. Kenneth Tucker.

All of the L.D.S. girls, between the ages of 12 and 21, donated all the pies, candy and popcorn balls. Music was furnished by Shane's orchestra. All proceeds from the dance will be turned to the building fund for the new L.D.S. stake house, which is now under construction on Alberta avenue.

NEWS VIEWS

BY LEW HERRIMAN

Where does the year go to? Just the other day it was Spring . . . now it's time for Hallowe'en. The frost is on the punkin', the corn is back on the radio and goblins are auditioning their "Boos'" for the big night of Oct. 31. Life sure has been getting tougher every year for ghosts, goblins and broom-stick riding witches. In these days of atom bombs and jet speed it takes a mighty good "haunt" to make us jump. But Hallowe'en is Hallowe'en . . . . a time of "tricks or treats" and autumn parties. Time for cider, doughnuts and bobbing for apples. So have fun, but not mischief . . . and don't let the goblins get you.

A mattress company is making a special rubber mattress for cows. How contented can cows get? We can't answer that. But we do know that our customers are a contented lot of motorists. That's because we go all out to give you the best of everything automotive . . . expert service at the right prices. See you soon at HERRIMAN MOTOR CO. Phone 77.
