Many Contribute In Polio Drive

APPLE VALLEY, Jan 26—Conley Wilson underwent surgery Monday at the Mercy hospital in Nampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Leigh entertained Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fretwell of Parma and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fretwell of Boise at dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Tromel of Parma were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Henderson.

The 4-H has been holding their meetings on Friday evening at the Bell home.
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Caldwell were visitors at the Vanlandingham home Monday.

Many folks have contributed to the march of dimes in this community. Anyone who has not contributed may do so by contacting Mrs. Clarence Fritts.
Reverend Thompson was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown returned Sunday evening from a trip east. They had very good weather while visiting her sister, Mrs. Turano of Buffalo, New York. They stopped in Missouri to visit his folks.
Mr. and Mrs. Price of Nampa were visitors at the B. E. Piltcher home Monday.

The P. T. A. sponsored a supper of chicken and noodles and oyster stew in the schoolhouse basement Thursday evening. A large crowd enjoyed the supper and program.
Dwain Wilson had a birthday party Thursday with 23 guests present. Games were played and refreshments were served.

The young people of the church held a ping pong party in the church basement Saturday evening and went to Caldwell Sunday night for a youths rally.
Ellis and Garold Horn and their father, Henry Horn, went to Caldwell Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Smalley will hold a farm sale February 6. The W. S. C. B. will serve lunch.
Betty Smith spent Friday night with Nadine Seward in celebration of Nadine's birthday.

Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Kellogg gave a birthday party in honor of Darroll Williams Tuesday evening.

Legion Meeting Set For Ontario

At the district conference of the American Legion and Legion auxiliary held in Ontario February 5, Sam Bove, state legion commander from Grants Pass, and Mrs. Sadie Graham of Corvallis, state auxiliary president will be special guests, along with other state officials from these two organizations.
The conference will begin at 2 p. m. at the new veteran's memorial hall on 8th and Idaho street in Ontario. A dinner served at 6:30 will be followed by a talk by Captain William Brown, department chairman of the anti subversive committee. Robert Talbot, commander of the local American Legion post, and Mrs. Kermit Lienkaemper, president of the Legion auxiliary, have asked that anyone wishing to attend the dinner, make reservations with them by Monday, January 30. They are also asking that all legion and auxiliary dues be paid, so that the annual report may be made at the district conference.

Return From California

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stoker and family have returned from California, where they attended the Rose Bowl football game. Mr. and Mrs. Rayle Stoker recently returned from Utah.

Farm Loan Group Plans Gathering

The Payette National Farm Loan association will hold its annual meeting February 2 in Payette, Herbert J. Davis, secretary-treasurer, announced today. The meeting, to be held at the Portia club hall, will be preceded by a dinner starting promptly at 12 noon.

William T. Downs, president of the association, will preside and will introduce the principal speaker, Arnold Anderson, regional manager of the federal land bank.

A brief business session will be highlighted by a report by Mr. Davis on the progress of the local farmer-owned credit institution, and by the election of two association directors. The term of Art Heap of Fruitland will expire this year. It will also be necessary to elect a director to fill the unexpired term of William A. Hoover, deceased.

A wild life picture will be shown by the Idaho fish and game department.

Called To Nebraska

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Krul and son, Bob, left Wednesday night for Hemingford, Nebraska, where they were called because of the death of Mr. Krul's brother, Frank. They will be away from Nyssa about a week.
