

Oce Schweizer Is Injured By Horse

SUNSET VALLEY, June 1—Oce Schweizer, who was assisting in the round-up of wild horses on the Owyhee, was thrown when his horse fell Saturday. Although Schweizer was not seriously injured from the fall, when he was taken home virus pneumonia developed.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wolfe and daughters spent Sunday as guests at the Irvin Wolfe farm near Kuna, Idaho.

Over 250 horses were gathered in the round-up, some placed in the Sagebrush corrals and others at the Foster dam ranch. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Garner and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Moncur drove to the area Sunday to see the horses.

A new baseball team was organized last week for boys from 10 to 15 years. S. E. Flanagan is sponsoring the group and furnishing equipment. Gene Cleaver will be manager. Those interested will meet at the CCC camp west of Ole's corner Tuesday.

Wayne Barrett and Vern Garner attended the monthly L. D. S. priesthood meeting held in Vale Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. William Orr and Delbert Garner attended the missionary meeting, also held in Vale that afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Robb were honored Friday evening when neighbors gathered at their home for a surprise party and shower. Many useful and practical household gifts were presented to the couple. After the surprise arrival, opening of gifts and games, refreshments of cake and ice cream were served to the 45 present. Mrs. Robb completed her high school course in Parma this month, and the couple are living on the Otto Wolfe farm.

Robert Ditty has been working this week for Fred Hawkins, leveling land near Vale.

Word has been received from Mrs. Burt Graham, formerly Lillie Snyder of Sunset valley, daughter of Adolph Snyder. Mrs. Graham entered the Salem tuberculosis hospital in September of 1949. Part of her lung and five ribs have been removed. She will be in the hospital there until September of 1950. Her three-year-old daughter is visiting in Payette with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Scott of Payette called at the William Orr home Friday for their daughter, Betty Lee, who had spent two weeks visiting her grandparents.

A weiner roast and get-together was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hobson for their son, Richard Hobson, and family of Leota, Kansas, who have been visiting in the valley the past 10 days. Included were Nampa guests, Mr. and Mrs. Madison Urwin and family, Parma guests, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Seward and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Kellog and families, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hobson and family of Ontario, and the James Langley and Homer Brewer families of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hobson and children left Wednesday for their home in Kansas, returning via air transport.

Ellen Ann Bowns celebrated her third birthday Sunday with a birthday dinner and special cake. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bowns invited her grandmother, Mrs. Anna West, and Jay and Lois Garner for the birthday dinner.

Mrs. S. E. Flanagan visited Barry Chestnut in the Holy Rosary hospital Friday. Barry, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chestnut, was seriously injured two weeks ago when dragged by a horse.

Mr. and Mrs. William Orr attended a Seventies meeting and social held in Parma Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Price and daughters attended the Pomona grange meeting held Saturday in Adrian.

The Pleasant Hour club will meet the afternoon of June 8 at the home of Mrs. James Stephens, Jr.

W. J. Coy of Ogdén, Utah arrived Monday for a visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Vern Garner.

O. P. Council and Mrs. Elton Council drove to Boise Friday to visit Elton Council, who was taken to the veterans hospital in that city last week. Elton has neuritis of the polar nerve, which will necessitate a long period of hospitalization. Friends may write him, addressed to Room 139 at the veterans hospital.

Dixie and Dick Council spent the week-end visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Council.

Miss Vera Faye Council, who graduated Thursday from the Adrian high school, left Friday for La Crosse, Washington, accompanying Mrs. Chloa McKee.

Celebration of three birthdays was the occasion for a Sunday dinner at the J. B. Mitchell home. Honored for the day were Mrs. Lewis Mitchell, Dent Mitchell and Caroline Jones. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Norman Douglas and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Knowles and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hillis, Lewis Mitchell and Mrs. Elizabeth Satterly of Burley, Idaho. Mrs. Satterly is a house guest visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Hillis.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Willis and son of Ogdén, Utah arrived Saturday to visit as house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Kidman over the Memorial holidays.

Week-end guests at the Harley Wilson home included Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston and children of Haines. The two ladies are sisters.

Mrs. Leota Ditty returned to her home on the ranch Tuesday after being in Ontario for several weeks recovering from an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Brewer attended funeral services Monday afternoon for two-year-old Ruth Elaine, daughter of E. H. Barker of Ontario, who was killed in an accident. Mr. and Mrs. Barker are former residents of Owyhee. Elaine was a niece of Homer Brewer.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dimmick were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schreiner of Yakima. The men, accompanied by Roy Holmes, fished on the Owyhee reservoir Sunday.

Mrs. Harold Snyder and daughter, Helen Kay, of Melba, Idaho were house guests from Wednesday until Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Price, parents of Mrs. Snyder.

Mrs. Vera Garner, Mrs. Lila Mitchell, and Miss Lois Garner attended the Nyssa L. D. S. stake Swarn day program held in Vale Saturday. Approximately 200 junior 'bee' girls from the ages of 12 to 15 and their mothers attended the annual picnic, and many enjoyed a swim in the pool.

Mr. and Mrs. Robb Thompson returned Monday by bus after visiting at the homes of Frank and Don Tosch in Prosser, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Hite and sons of Haines were house guests at the John Reffett home from Saturday until Tuesday. Mrs. Blanche Hite was also an overnight guest at the Reffett home Monday evening, visiting her son and grandchildren.

W. T. Buffington of Nampa was an overnight guest at the Ira Chadd home Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Chadd dined at the Harry Rahan home Sunday.

Mrs. Charlie Schweizer and Miss Clarice Notheis attended a meeting of the Book club Saturday afternoon in Parma at the home of Mrs. Alva Watts, with Mrs. Ralph Hawthorn as hostess.

Mrs. Walter Hillis, Mrs. Lewis Mitchell and Mrs. Elizabeth Satterly visited Mrs. Ed Steiner and new baby boy Friday in Ontario. The infant weighed 7 pounds and a half. He was named Rodney Dean.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Field motored to Weiser Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nishitani attended the J. A. C. L. graduation banquet and dance Saturday evening in Ontario.

who will visit this summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pife.

Here From North Dakota—
Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Zewmke and son of Turtle Lake, North Dakota arrived in Nyssa Saturday. They left Sunday, accompanied by Miss Emma Zewmke for Salem, where they will visit relatives before returning to North Dakota.

Here From Salmon—
Mr. and Mrs. John J. Smith and family arrived in Nyssa Friday from Salmon, Idaho to visit with Mr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Smith. Mr. Smith returned to Salmon Sunday, and Mrs. Smith and daughters will remain here for two weeks.

Visitors Here—
Visitors at the George Vaughn home are Mr. Vaughn's father, George Vaughn, Sr., and a brother, Gus Vaughn of Ogdén, and another brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Vaughn of Richland, Washington.
