

Dairymen Hold Dinner Meeting

A large number of business and professional people attended a dinner given in the Moore hotel in Ontario last Friday night when 18 directors and western Oregon members of the Oregon Jersey Cattle club met for their monthly meeting. The 18 visitors were here to attend the spring Jersey show sponsored by the Malheur Jersey Cattle club Saturday.

Mayor Dyrre Bennett, on behalf of the city of Ontario, said "I would like to welcome you folks to Malheur county. I hope your visit here will be enjoyable. We have room for a lot of good Jerseys and would like to have you come back and live among us".

Henry H. Hartley, on behalf of the Nyssa chamber of commerce welcomed the breeders "to Nyssa, scene of the best spring Jersey show in Oregon. We are happy to have you with us and hope you enjoy the show".

Marlin Fox, president of the Oregon Jersey Cattle club, said "We are happy to be here. We thought it would be a good idea to hold our meetings in various parts of the state".

The president then introduced the directors and other western Oregon breeders, totaling 18. Rosel Hunter, president of the Malheur club, is one of the Oregon directors. The directors then spent some time considering business of the state club.

Visit In Montana—Mr. and Mrs. George N. Bear left Saturday morning to visit relatives at Darby and Hamilton, Montana. They returned home Wednesday.

Buy Jersey—Fred N. Mitchell of Nyssa has purchased one registered Jersey, Vol. Knight Jean Susie, from the herd owned by Al Thompson and Son of Kingman Colony.

Is Yours a PREFERRED Home?

If your property is well-kept, well cared for, you may be living within the charmed circle of GENERAL OF AMERICA "preferred risk" fire insurance protection. Under this newest and most logical plan thousands of GENERAL policyholders have realized substantial savings.

The GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY, "the Company of preferred risks," is one of the nation's strongest capital stock insurance companies. You may be eligible for this preferred fire insurance protection. Ask us... no obligation, of course.

*"Preferred Risk" fire insurance means that only good risks are accepted—the bad are rejected. Obviously, losses are few. This lower loss ratio has been reflected, wherever possible, in lower net fire insurance costs to owners of "preferred properties."

All types of commercial properties, as well as residences, are eligible for "preferred risk" fire protection.
